SPRINGBANK SERIES

Defeat Youngs, 4 to 1, in Warm Struggle for B. C. McCann Silverware,

On Saturday in the Springbank League the St. Johns and Youngs battled for nine innings in the first contest of a post series of three games, the score being 4—1 in favor of the Saints.

The game was fast throughout, the St. Johns having a shutout in hand until the last inning, when the Youngs gathered three scratch hits off the excellent pitching of Watts, making a lone tally.

Next Saturday the second game will be played, and if the St. Johns are the winners they carry off the B. C. McCann trophy as their permanent property, the team having won it last year. Batteries—St. Johns, Watts and Stinson; Youngs, Clark and Russell. Umpire, J. McColl.
