Number Three Committee Talks of Taking More Aggressive Measures to Stop It.

Faulting Electric Wiring in Business Section a Handicap to Firemen.

No. 3 committee of the city council has leclared war against the short-weight pakers. Reports of seizures made on Monday by Inspector McCallum included bread that averaged over five ounces short to each loaf. Ald Rose proposed that Inspector McCallum be provided with an assistant, so that seizures calld be made on a larger scale. Ald. Ashplant favored bringing the matter to the attention of the city council. It was pointed out that nothing could be done by way of making the penalty of a maximum fine $5 severer without an act of the Proncial Legislature; but it was suggested by Ald. Stein that if several of the bakers ad their entire output seized some day, it would bring the short-weight failing more closely to the attention of their customers. It was pointed out that bread can be seized in the grocery stores, the same as in bakeshops and bread wagons.

Electric Wiring. Building Inspector Piper and Fire Chief Aitken reported on the electric wiring of the business section. Much fault was found with it, and it was said to be very difficult to raise ladders especially at night, to the front of buildings, so many connected at the same place, so that the Both the Hydro-Electric and London Electric are at fault in this respect. Chief Aitken thought that all wires should be connected at the same place, so that the wires would not be scattered all over the facades of the buildings.

"Why don't the hydro people use the conduits provided?" asked Inspector

MAYOR IS CENSURED BY PROGRESSIVES FOR UNBUSINESSLIKE WAYS

Biggest Meeting of West London Association Expresses Itself Disgusted With Manner in Which City's Business Has Been Handled-Method of Purchasing Incinerator Sharply Criticised.

siderable criticism at one of the largest meetings of the West London Pro- the city says we cannot make collecgressive Association held in some time, in the association's rooms, Collin's Hall, Wednesday night.

That every member of the association is dissatisfied, and in fact disgusted, with the manner in which some of the members of the city council are handling the city's business was the general keynote of the whole meeting. The first matter to come up for discussion was the tax rate, and Mayor

Graham's evident desire to fool the public into thinking the rate low by making it 24.9 mills instead of 25. Mr. R. A. Y. Stinchcombe said ould not understand the motive of the mayor. "It looks to me as if it solutely too ridiculous on the part of nue. a party of men supposed to be bus-inessmen. Why did they not make the rate 25 mills and be done with it? enough of this businessmen's council. The mayor cannot gull me with motion to the effect that this assomills, when it should have been 25."

Mr. E. A. Pocock seconded this moplace, and all through the meeting was then held. suggestions that things could not be dene on account of a 24.9 mill tax rate were made, accompanied by the publicity commissionership, Mr. amused laughs. The motion was put Churchill expressed the opinion that and carried, and then Mr. E. A. Pocock called attention to an article who had accomplished that. "Alder- ance, which appeared in a local paper saying that the mayor had warmly roasted him for an impudent letter which he wrote to the council at the instigation of the association.

"When that letter was read in committee Ald. Saunders suggested that it be filed, according to the report in that paper," said Mr. Pocock, "but the mayor advised sending the letter back me, saying that it was an impudent tter. He also threw an aspersion me, and said that anyone reading the letter could see why I was not given the position of publicity comgiven the position of publicity commissioner. Several days ago I wrote a letter to the mayor challenging him to publish the letter, but so far he has not done so. The action of the mayor that night was a mean and cowardly that night was a mean and cowardly on his part to cover his bunging in connection with the appointnent of a publicity commissioner. And we suspect that the delay might be intentional, to further the interests of other big money bylaws that are to be submitted to the people shortly. Now, gentlemen, West London is tired of such humbugging, and we have pledged ourselves to do our uttermost to defeat any and all other schemes that may be submitted to the people, unless this breakwater scheme, the most important of all, in so far as life and property are concerned, received a fair and proper consideration.
