Body of Pope Lies in State in Sistine Chapel of the Vatican.

Sacred College To Meet Next Week To Elect a Successor.

EDITOR'S NOTE-The exact hour of the death of Pope Benedict XV. at the Vatican Saturday night has not yet been fully es tablished.

At 2:22 p.m. Saturday after-noon Reuter's News Service, recognized since its inception as the most reliable of all European news services, in a dispatch to Berlin, relayed from that city to London, England, and from thence to The London Advertiser announced the death of the pontiff. Ten minutes later this advice was corroborated in an E. O. S. Bulletin received by the Canadian Press.

It was by this means that The Advertiser was enabled to publish an extra at 3:10 p.m Saturday afternoon, 37 hours ahead of any other London newspaper, and a few minutes earlier than Toronto newspapers, in-forming the public of the pass-ing of his holiness.

At 3:10 p.m. in London, On-tario, it is 9:35 p.m. in Rome, and official dispatch from the Vatican received here Sunday day night Insists that the pontiff Saturday night in London, On-

Early in the day the body of the late pontiff, whose death in the early hours of Sunday plunged the church throughout the world into deepest mourning, was taken to the Sistine Chapel from the throne room of the Vatican, where it had been placed on Sunday shortly after his death. Then, at 9:45 o'clock it was solemnly carried to St. Peter's, attended by a procession of cardinals, priests, members of the diplomatic corps and dignitars of the Vatican and placed on the alfque, surrounded by votive

Word was given that the public Rome would be admitted to St. Peter's up to 11 o'clock, and immense crowds immediately began entering the vast edifice and filing by the body of the dead pontiff.

The body of the pope is robed in white, with stole and chasuble of red, embroidered with gold. The head, wearing the pontifical mitre, reposes upon cushions of red and gold velvet. The hands, wearing the pontifical gioves of purple silk and holding the rosary, are clasped over the breast

The body, as it was solemnly brought into St. Peter's, was borne upon a red-covered bier by ushers clad in medieval costumes of scarlet. The procession was headed by the gendarmerie of the Vatican, the pontifical police, with their elaborate uniforms of blue and white, walking
