The Hero Shot and Killed the Villain During a Rehearsal.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 29.—During the rehearsal of a western drama in the Opera House at South Marion last night, William Fogleson, aged 18 years, the hero shot and instantly killed Oliver Miller, aged 25, the villain. The shooting was witnessed by six other members of the company, one of whom was Miss Fogleson, a sister of William Fogleson. She says young Fogleson carried the revolver, with a number of loose cartridges, in his overcoat, and that their nine-year-old brother may have secured the weapon, and loaded it without the knowledge of his elder brother.

BOLD ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP TRAIN.

A Lone Robber Endeavored to Do So, But Was Only Partially Successful.

Louisville, Dec. 29.—A bold attempt was made by a lone robber to hold up the New Orleans-Cincinnati north-bound express of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, as the train was entering South Louisville early to-day. The highwayman secured but little booty, and is believed to have been shot by Conductor Keene. Keene was going through the sleeper, in which was the porter the Pullman conductor and one passenger. A masked man sprang at Keene from a dark corner, and commanded him to throw up his hands. Keene complied with the intruder. A bullet from the robber's pistol stunned him, and the highwayman pulled the signal cord. While the train was slowing down he robbed the Pullman conductor and a passenger, securing $25 from the latter. As the train was slowing down he robbed the Pullman conductor and a passenger, securing $25 from the latter. THE ORIGINAL TOSPY DEAD.

New York, Dec. 30.—Imogene Tracy, one of the best known of soubrettes of a generation ago, is dead as the result of a fall down stairs at her home in this city. Miss Tracy took up the part of Topsy in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," after the role had been played by Marie Bates, and played it for many years. She was the one chosen to play the part in Europe at the time a fund was raised to have the play produced there.

MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30.—Adolph Rapp, aged 60, proprietor of the Hoffman House in Derby, was killed at the Hotel Garde early this morning. Mr. Rapp registered at the hotel shortly after midnight, and some time later stepped into the elevator to be taken to his room. Just before the elevator reached the first floor Rapp fell forward, and was caught between the car and the wall, and was crushed so badly that death was undoubtedly instantaneous.

A TRIPLE DROWNING.

Gainsboro', Tenn., Dec. 29.—While attempting to cross Cumberland River, near here, last night, Miss Verdi Rich, Miss Hattie Rose and Walter Rich were drowned, while Rufus Bailey and Alfred Crowder narrowly escaped. The canoe they were in was over-crowded, and when the current of the swollen stream struck it the frail craft swayed and rocked. One of the frightened girls jumped into the water, causing the canoe to capsize. The oldest of the party was 19 years.

LINEMAN SHOCKED TO DEATH.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Chas. Cresotte, a telephone lineman employed by the American Contracting Company, was shocked to death to-day by a stringing telephone wires in this city yesterday. A spur on his foot tore the insulation from an electric light wire, and when he took hold of a guy wire with one hand a circuit was formed. A companion went to his rescue, and dropped him thirty feet into a horse blanket, held by three men like a life-net, but Cresotte died within five minutes.

A BIG BANK MERGER.

New York, Dec. 30.—The Times says: "Plans are being made to effect within a short time the consolidation of the National Broadway, the Seventh National and the Mercantile National banks into one institution. The combined bank will be known as the Mercantile National, and it is likely that its capital amounts to $10,000,000. Charles W. Morse, who dominates the National Amsterdam National, the National Bank of North America and the Garfield National and other smaller banking institutions in this city, is the combined bank will be known as the Mercantile National. The combined capital and surplus of the three banks named is $8,044,149. The Times further says: "It is understood that as members of the new board there will be at least the following:—Chas. W. It is feared the drought has caused the natives to resort to cannibalism. Thousands are starving or subsisting on roots. Twenty-five natives recently were killed in a tribal fight.

THE KAISER AND THE CABLE.

Berlin, Dec. 30.—Emperor William has telegraphed to Max Guillaume, of the North German Sea cable works, of Stettin, as follows:—"I have learned with special pleasure of the launching of the first cable ship built at a German shipyard, and I express, in connection with the new German Atlantic cable, the hope that it will continue toward strengthening more and more the good relations between Germany and the United States."

GERMAN NAVAL BUDGET.

Berlin, Dec. 30.—The naval budget for 1903 provides for laying down immediately two battleships, now building, and two smaller cruisers, one armored cruiser, two small cruisers and five torpedo boats. The constructions are within the permanent naval program. Two battleships, now building, will be completed in the summer of 1905, and three small cruisers will be finished early in 1904. These will have a displacement of 1,000 tons. During 1902 four battleships, one armored cruiser and one gunboat were commissioned.

A SEPARATE CABINET.

Berlin, Dec. 30.—Emperor William and Chancellor Von Buelow are considering the establishment of a separate cabinet, especially for the administration of the Polish affairs in a single office and secure uniformity and consistency in the administrative policy.

FAVORS GERMAN BISHOPS.

Rome, Dec. 30.—Herr P. P. Caisensly, a member of the German Reichstag and President of the Saint Raphael Society, for the protection of German immigrants in America, who for ten years past has been agitating in favor of the appointment of German ecclesiastics to minister to German Catholics in the United States, is again actively urging the Vatican to appoint German bishops wherever the German element predominates.

THE HUMBERTS.

Paris, Dec. 30.—The Humberts continue to attract public attention here. Minister of Justice Valle brought the subject before the council of ministers to-day, saying he had given $5,000 to the Spanish police for assisting in the arrest. This is additional to the $5,000 reward which has not yet been paid. He said that the Humberts are expected to be in Paris in a few days. The prisoners so far have declined to name the accomplices who are sought. The designated Maitre Chenu to appear in their behalf. The Humberts safe, which was alleged to contain $20,000,000, has been removed to a theatre, where it will be the chief attraction.

PANAMA CANAL CO.

Paris, Dec. 30.—The annual meeting of the Panama Canal Co. was held here to-day. The attendance was smaller than usual, and the proceedings were more orderly than last year. The time was mostly occupied with reading the report of the directors of the company, in which were detailed the pending negotiations with the United States looking to the sale of the canal. The facts set forth in this report are all already known. The sanguine hope was expressed that all difficulties would be overcome, and the sale completed at an early date. The reading of the report was followed by a brief discussion, in the course of which two or three of the stockholders made the customary protests against the sale, and asked what would happen if the negotiations with the United States fell through. President Bo declared that in this event the stockholders again would be consulted, while, if the sale took place, they would have to meet to vote ratification. The directors' report was approved, the outgoing officers of the company were re-elected and the meeting then adjourned.

EXCRUCIATING LUMBAGO PERMANENTLY CURED.

A severe case which proves the power of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets to cure so that you stay cured.

There are very few people in Havelock, Ont., or vicinity, who do not know Mr. William Reynolds, the popular C. P. R. brakeman, whose picture appears here.

About two years ago he was laid up with a severe attack of lumbago, which caused him excruciating pain, so that to stoop over or turn in bed was agony. He heard of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets being a splendid remedy for such complaints as his. He took the Tablets and they cured him. Since then Mr. Reynolds has had no return of his old trouble, and has recommended Dr. Pitcher's Tablets to many men on the road, such as firemen, engineers, conductors and fellow-brakemen, all of whom, from the nature of their occupation, are liable to bad backs and kidney trouble, and, in every instance, the Tablets have proved effectual.

STATEMENT MAY 31st, 1900.

This is what Mr. William Reynolds had to say about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets on May 31st, 1900, just after he was cured: "I had lumbago so bad when I got Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets from A. C. Denike, the druggist, that I could hardly move. It was most painful to turn in bed. There was a dull nagging aching in the small of my back continually, and I stooped or assume an upright position after sitting was extremely painful. This was not the only time I suffered that way; my case was becoming chronic, and the remedies that formerly gave me relief did not help me now in the least. I found, though, that as soon as I started taking Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, they helped me at once. They have removed the whole trouble. I have neither pain nor lameness now. I cannot say too much for them, and I heartily recommend them."

(Signed) WM. REYNOLDS.

STATEMENT MARCH 29th, 1902.

When our representative called on Mr. Reynolds, recently, he did not hesitate to speak in the highest terms of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and the permanent cure they had made in his case. Said he: "I have never had any return of that lumbago and kidney trouble which attacked me so severely in the spring of 1900. Dr. Pitcher's Kidney Tablets made a complete and thorough cure then, and I have never been bothered since."

(Signed) A. C. DENIKE.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a bottle or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.
