COLONIAL AFFAIRS.

A few issues back we placed before our readers the meeting and objects of the great commercial convention at Detroit. By the recent mail we learn that the result of the debate has been highly satisfactory to both the Canadian delegates and their reciprocity friends in the States. A resolution passed, recommending President Johnson to enter into negotiations with the English Government with a view to drawing up a new commercial treaty between the United States and the British North American possessions, including Vancouver Island and British Columbia. For the latter clause of the resolution we are no doubt indebted to Mr. Taylor of Minnesota, whose remarks we gave and commented upon in the COLONIST a few weeks ago. It has been this gentleman's desire ever since the question of the renewal of the treaty came up, to include these colonies in the general arrangement, and, in the absence of any action taken either by our merchants or our Government, it is extremely fortunate that we have been thus brought within the terms of the resolution. This fact, however, should not act as a sedative upon our legislators. Much has yet to be done before we are embraced within the folds of reciprocity. So far as the resolution is concerned, it is an informal expression of popular, or rather commercial sentiment, and may be lost upon the more political assemblages that sit in Washington, who have certainly shown, as we have previously said, a disposition to make annexation capital out of the abrogation of the treaty. The recent expose of the designs of the American Consul-General Potter at Montreal, and Mr. Wood, Superintendent of the Telegraph Company, has in this respect produced some little excitement. The Consul stated to the Detroit Convention that if the Reciprocity Treaty were withheld for two years the Canadians would be asking for admission to the Union—an assertion so imprudent that had Mr. Potter the best grounds in the world to go upon, nothing short of his removal could satisfy the people of Montreal or do justice to the American Government. The publication of the Consul's letter has led to no end of oration and recrimination among the Canadian press, all the papers who were supposed to favor annexation being charged with endeavoring to do quietly what Mr. Potter essayed in public. Reciprocity or no reciprocity will, however, most likely be settled upon before another half year has expired. In a few months Congress will meet and the subject will occupy an early and prominent part in the Washington debates. It is therefore almost useless to speculate on the general result.

A rather amusing case of analogy between New Brunswick and British Columbia is presented by recent advices. The return to England of Governor Seymour has been the theme of no end of conjecture in both this and the neighboring colony: one party asserting that he has left for England on political business, and the other that he has merely gone home to get married. Lieut. Governor Gordon, of New Brunswick, is opposed to Confederation, and is therefore obnoxious to the party who hold opposite opinions. The Governor, like Mr. Seymour, leaves suddenly for England, and the Confederation party maintain that he has been recalled on account of his opposition to the Imperial policy. The anti-confederates, like our anti-unionites, are not short for an excuse, and they at once assert that he has gone home to get married. There is such a remarkable similarity in both these cases that one would fancy Governors of colonies to be walking paradoxes. While both men, their friends say, are opposing union of the colonies, both undertake a voyage across the Atlantic as if to show their insincerity on the great question by plunging into a union much more serious than any political partnership that can be contemplated between the North American provinces. A few short months, however, will put all these surmises and assertions to rest. The elections being now over in Great Britain the Imperial authorities will be able to proceed more vigorously in their colonial policy. What our fate is to be we shall shortly know. In the meantime the announcement published by us yesterday in reference to the Hon. S. L. Tilley and the governorship of these two colonies may prove to be more than a rumor. A very strong desire is at present shown by the Home Government to conciliate the feelings of the colonies in every way, and no more graceful compliment could be paid to colonial born men than to open up that avenue of preferment which has heretofore been exclusively confined to the natives of the United Kingdom. With Governors selected from among the large list of distinguished colonists, would end many of the serious complications that are brought about, and many of the follies that are perpetrated, by the inexperienced class of men occasionally sent to us from Downing street. No higher stroke of colonial policy could be inaugurated by Mr. Cardwell than thus making the colonies the nursery for colonial governors. It would not only have the merit of enlarging the very narrow field of colonial ambition, but it would give to the colonies themselves the very best guarantee that their interests would be never jeopardized through the follies of men unversed in new country life.

FROM THE SOUND.

ARRIVED, Sept. 5.—British sloop-of-war "Runaway." She is commanded by a non-commissioned officer, carries eight men but no guns, as she did not expect to meet the Shenandoah. The commander informs me that he can not give her accurate dimensions for the reason that she had been put into immediate service as an extra vessel. As the war is now at an end all hands have prudently concluded to drop the number of their mess, leave the service and retire to the peaceful avocations of civil life. The commander says that as soon as his jubilee is over and time permits he shall send in to the proper head the report of his last cruise. But he and crew are rather diffident as to their pay for the last quarter.

P.S.—Arrived, Sept. 2d.—Bark Torrent, from S.I.

GOODWOOD.—The sporting contributor to Bell's Weekly Messenger says: There has been some speculation on the Goodwood Stakes and Cup, but especially on the former, for which Claremont is favorite. We can see nothing better in than Moose, who, with 7 at. only to carry, ought to win; and Lady Hylda is not out of it. Mr. Ten Broeck will have a favorite sooner or later in either Scheldt or Alabama, probably the latter. The Cup betting is mainly confined to Eltham, Gladiator, and Fille de l'Air. The first mentioned is favorite, from the known probity of his owner, Mr. W. Robinson, but Gladiator has also friends. However, the French horse has 8 at to carry, and we cannot believe he can do it successfully; besides, the French party have Fille de l'Air engaged, and she is more likely to suit their turn; and if all is well she and Cambucan ought to have the race between them. Of the three year olds, Eltham has the best chance in our opinion. The St. Leger is apparently a match between the Derby and Oaks winners, and creates no betting, but the meeting of the pair will be very exciting, and we shall not be at all surprised to see Regalia, a splendid chestnut mare, beat the Derby winner. Mares always improve in the Autumn, and the St. Leger has fallen to a mare three times in the last seven years.

CHARACTERISTIC.—"Silk purse ye canna mak' o' lug o' soo that grumphs," says a Scotch distich. To look for anything refined or gentlemanly to emanate from the columns of the Chronicle is equally futile. We yesterday advanced proof of the injustice of an insinuation cast by one of the counsel upon our report of the Admiralty case, and instead of acknowledging, as any respectable newspaper would have done that it was in error and we were right, it attempts as usual to cover its blundering with ignorant and vulgar bluster. The reputation of our contemporary, we fear, is fast falling to as low an ebb as its influence or circulation in the community.

MR. J. C. RIDGE.—Passengers who arrived by the Sierra Nevada state that Mr. Joseph Charles Ridge, formerly one of our city members, and subsequently reported to be holding office under the Emperor Maximilian, has arrived at San Francisco from England as working manager of an English company formed for the purpose of mining for silver in Washoe. Accompanying Mr. Ridge are an English barrister and a doctor, shareholders in the company, who have no doubt been sent out to report from personal observation on the prospects of the company.

WONDERS WILL NEVER CEASE.—A letter received from Mr. Drake at San Francisco confirms the announcement made a short time ago, and said to emanate from Culverwell, that Mr. Zadetsky, partner in the firm of Christian & Zadetsky, who formerly worked the Rock Bay Saw Mill, was alive and in business in San Francisco. We don't know how the undertaker who placed the defunct man in his bier will get over this somewhat startling fact. Mr. Drake adds that a deceased Chinaman was substituted for the supposed body of Zadetsky.

FORD'S THEATRE.—A movement is on foot among the ladies of Washington to raise fifty thousand or fifty thousand dollars as the basis of a fund for the purchase of Ford's Theatre. It is thought that this sum can be raised by the time Congress meets, and that, if Congress should be unwilling to appropriate the whole amount required for the purchase of the property, that they at least will be willing to make an appropriation sufficient, with the above, to make up the whole of the purchase money. The intention is to convert the building into a magnificent public library.

SUCCESSOR TO GEN. WRIGHT.—Colonel Geo. L. Curry is announced as the successor of General Wright to the command of the Department of Columbia. He was the fifth Governor of Oregon, one of the counties of which was named in his honor.—S. F. paper.

NAVAL.—We have the authority of our evening contemporary for the statement that Admiral Denman is probably going home, and that he will be succeeded by Admiral Wise, who is to come out in an iron-clad.

QUICK PASSAGE.—The Hudson Bay Company's fine vessel Princess Royal reached Grayson July 2d, after a fine passage of 114 days.

PROMOTED.—Assistant Paymaster Bremner having received his promotion, left by the Sierra Nevada, with Mrs. Bremner, for England.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 8.—The Bench granted wholesale licenses to Wilson & Murray, Fort-street, Lawrence Clarke & Joyce and Thos. Nuttall. Transfers—Fashion Hotel, from Keenan to Brooks & Patterson; Queen's Saloon, from Manetta to Hounslow. Permission was granted to Berry and Horser to sell for one month at the Royal Hotel Tap, under the license of Rowland. The application to transfer the license from the premises now occupied by Eugene Thomas, to a brick store on the opposite side of Yates-street, was refused. Mr. Green for the applicant, applied for a new license, to be heard next sitting. The application on the behalf of Mr. J. B. Beecroft for a license for a house on Victoria Arm, called the Gorge Retreat, was postponed for one month.

DEPARTURE OF GOV. SEYMOUR.—His Excellency Governor Seymour, of British Columbia, took his departure yesterday for England by the Sierra Nevada. He was accompanied to Esquimalt by the Hon. Mr. Birch, Colonial Secretary, E. C. Mannell Esq., Private Secretary, A. T. Bushby, Esq., and other friends, in his Excellency's steam yacht Leviathan.

ARRIVAL OF THE MAIL STEAMER.—The Sierra Nevada, Capt. Connor, arrived yesterday morning at half-past four o'clock, with passengers and freight, as per purser's memorandum elsewhere. She left again about five p. m., for San Francisco direct.

TREASURY SHIPMENTS.—In addition to the $121,705 28 shipped by the Bank of British Columbia per Sierra Nevada, the Bank of British North America shipped $12,600, and Wells, Fargo & Co. $10,000, making a total of $143,905 28.

THE BROTHER JONATHAN MAILS.—The two mail bags containing Government despatches recovered from the wreck of the Brother Jonathan, arrived yesterday by the mail steamer. The Post Master received one bag of mail matter containing about 500 letters.

DEATH OF COGSWELL.—The friends of the man Cogswell, late of Napa City, who died suddenly on Tuesday morning, inform us that death did not result from drink but from natural causes.

THE CHURCH RESERVE INJUNCTION.—This matter did not come up for hearing yesterday. The motion to show cause, we understand, will be deferred until the whole question comes up for argument.

ARREARS OF LICENSE MONEY.—Willis Bond was yesterday mulcted by the magistrate in the sum of $145, to be levied by distress. The summons against the bankrupt Crowther was not pressed.

ROBBERY AT COMOX.—The Rev. Mr. Oare's house at Comox has been entered by Indians and nearly stripped of its contents.

Monday, Sept. 11.

ARRIVAL OF THE DEVASTATION.—H. M. S. Devastation, Capt. Jolliffe, arrived in Esquimalt yesterday afternoon from Acapulco, having been under sail most of the passage. The report that she had gone in search of the Shenandoah proves to be incorrect. We have been favored with the following memoranda:—Sailed from Panama July 16 and steamed to Acapulco, arriving there on the 25th. Found the U. S. Frigate Lancaster, bearing the flag of Rear-Admiral Pearson, and the U. S. sloop Saranac, Com. Scott. On the 30th, the U. S. double-ender Suwanee, Capt. Shirley, arrived from Panama. On the same day she started north in search of the Shenandoah, and the Devastation sailed for Vancouver Island. Experienced fine weather until about 100 miles from the entrance of the straits when she met with thick foggy weather. Saw a bark yesterday morning, name and nation unknown—bound out. No other sail seen during the passage.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE COAL CO.—At a meeting of the shareholders in this company, held on Saturday, the following gentlemen were elected directors: Messrs. Thos. B. Trounce, J. B. Timmerman, C. Vereyden, W. P. Sayward, Dr. Diekmann, James Moorhead, and C. Hounslow.

H. M. S. BRAVER.—This surveying steamer has been heard from. Dispatches received from Fort Rupert on Saturday state that she had just left for Smith's Inlet, and would reach Nanaimo by the end of the month on her way down.

THE RIFLE MATCH.

The rifle contest between ten of the Volunteer Rifle Corps and ten of H. M. Suttley on Saturday, terminated in favor of the latter, by a majority however so small as to render the match peculiarly exciting. The morning was calm, but cloudy and lowering, and as the hour of ten approached Pluvius threatened to mar the day's enjoyment.

Shortly after ten o'clock, the Suttley riflemen under Lieutenant Maxwell, having won the toss, opened fire, and commenced with a very good score at 200 yards. Messrs. Maxwell, Roffey, and Levett making the highest score, 16 each. The former and latter made two bulls eyes in succession. The total score for the five rounds was 126. The Volunteers, under Lieutenant Pearce, then went in and commenced very well; Lieut. Pearce making a bulls eye the first shot. The best shooting at this range was made by Bandsman Thompson, who made 17, including two bulls eyes and three centres. Lieut. Pearce scored 15 including two bulls eyes. Private Homfray stood next with 14. At about this stage of the proceedings, a drizzling rain began to fall and, materially interfered with the sights of the marksmen, the Fleet only making 92 at the distance of 300 yards. Roffey, Levett, and Banbury stood highest with 12 each, Levett again making two bulls eyes. The Volunteers at the same range scored a total of 104, placing them 9 ahead of their opponents and inspiring them with greater confidence. Thompson again stood at the top of the score with 15, including two bulls eyes. Wilson and Newberry were next with 14. The marksmen and their friends then partook of a collation provided by the Volunteers, the drenching rain, which was falling without any signs of abatement, adding keen edge to their appetites. After lunch (about two o'clock), despite the rain, a good many visitors, including His Excellency the Governor and Admiral Denman, appeared on the ground. The Navy went in at the 400 range, and showed an improvement on their last score by running up a total of 102. The highest scoring was made by Maxwell, Roffey and Booth, Roffey making two bulls eyes in succession. The Volunteers also shot well at this range, getting within two of their opponents, and still heading them by seven. Bandsman Homfray, at this range, shot very steadily making three bulls eyes in succession and heading the score with 17. Thompson second with 14. At the last range of 600 yards the Fleet made very indifferent shooting, missing 31 times out of 50 shots and only scoring 43 points, leaving the Volunteers but 37 to win. The latter therefore went in pretty confident of victory, but discovered that the rain which obscured the target for the fleet was no more indulgent to them, in fact the showers were falling more heavily, and out of the 50 shots 34 retired with "duck's eggs" attached to their names. Towards the close the excitement was intense, when five shots remained to be fired, and one hit would win the match. But the look of disappointment displayed by the Volunteers was only equalled by the satisfaction depicted on the countenances of the Navy as crack after crack went without the familiar click of the ball on the target being heard. Corporal Peel was the last to fire, and all eyes were turned upon him as the last hope of the Volunteers, but he did no better than his predecessors and the victory fell to the Suttley men.

The bugle then sounded and both companies fell in, the Volunteers opened ranks to the right, and the Fleet marched through, the Volunteers presenting arms to the music of the Band. We may here remark that the Rifle Band under Bandmaster Haynes were on the ground during the afternoon, and without any protection from the weather played a number of airs in good style.

The Suttley were ordered by Lieut. Maxwell to ground arms and gave three cheers for the Volunteers. The latter replied with three cheers for the winners and one for the Suttley.

The Admiral's prize of a handsome gold watch will be presented to Chief Engineer Roffey, who made the highest score on the winning side (46). The highest score of the day (51) was made by Bandsman Thompson; the next (46) by Lieut. Pearce a tie with Engineer Roffey.

Altogether our Volunteers have no occasion to feel ashamed at the result of the match, and should a return match take place (which we presume it will) they may hope to be able to turn the tables and retrieve their lost laurels.

The Navy fired with the short and the Volunteers with long Enfield. The markers at the butt were Sergeant Wade for the Fleet and Corporal Englehart for the Volunteers.

FALSE DELICACY.—The friends of those who are troubled with bad breath, and through over-squeamishness, dislike to refer to it, commit a positive and cruel mistake especially if they are aware of the merits and great efficacy of the Fragrant Soudont. This is the true and only remedy for a bad breath now.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—Stomach and Kidneys.—Between these two organs there exists a close and intimate relation which is demonstrated by the wasting which occurs in all diseases afflicting the kidneys. The disordered stomach is often the first index of renal irregularity. Holloway's remedies used at that juncture would do short many a serious and fatal attack. They act with wonderful efficacy on every organ of secretion, but especially do they regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys, in restoring their healthy functions, and casting out any obstructions or impurities. It is necessary for the continent to be well rubbed into the small of the back twice daily, when it is absorbed, and greatly augments the purifying and salutary influence of the Pills.
