PROVINCIAL EXPIRITION.

We publish the list of the prize, in money, diplomas, and honorable mentions awarded at the Provincial Exhibition. Our readers will no doubt find interest in connuing it over. If the way of price taking, Hether the model farm P E I. The judges considered them way superior, unimals and recommended that they be given a diploma. Frederiston did very well, but it must be said that York and the go river Counties and Charlotte did not. Sunbury in sheep, horses and swine held its own. The prize list proves that the locality of an Exhibition decides what part of the Province will be best represented, St. John city and county, King's, Keut, and in lesser degree Westmorland and Albert Carried off the bulk of the prizes. The manufacturers and billions of any continual temperature.
