MATAPEDIA MOURNS FOR SERGT. ADAMS.

Another of Matapedia's promising young men has paid the price of this terrible war. Sgt. James Andrew Adams aged 24 years died of wounds on Nov. 7th.

He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Adams of Willow Cottage. Born March 24th, 1893. At the age of 13 years his parents moved to Manitoba. There after completing his Grammar School education he entered Brandon College, where he spent two years. His parents then returned to Matapedia.

On July 8th, 1915 he enlisted in the 55th Battalion, trained at Valcartier until going overseas Oct. 30th. He remained ten months in England when he was promoted to Sergeant. Took special training in machine gun section, and was made instructor to a Canadian Battalion.

On Sept. 17th, 1916 he went to France, was wounded at the Somme, Vimy Ridge and fatally wounded at Passchendaele.

The Rev. J. R. Miller, uncle of the deceased who conducted the memorial service on Sunday last, spoke very touchingly on the young man's life, his boyhood in Matapedia West, as a young man at college, and his courage and devotion to duty as a soldier.

Lance Corporal Malvin T. Hamilton is reported wounded with a gun shot wound in the hand. He went overseas with the 171st Battalion in November 1916 and was afterward transferred to the 42 R. H. C. Mrs. Arthur McKenzie has received word that her son Pte. Victor Adams is missing since November 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stanley have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant son, Elias Willis.

CHRISTMAS FEASTS.

Many curious feasts arose in connection with the celebration of Christmas in early days. Thus, the ass on which Balaam rode in the "Reins Mystery" won for the feast the title "Festum Asinorum," the Feast of the Asses. As it was celebrated in France, according to William Hone, it consisted almost entirely of dramatic show. On one occasion the clergy walked on Christmas Day in procession, habited to represent the prophets and other characters.
