Mrs. William McWhirter is at present in Montreal. Rev. E. J. Rattee occupied the pulpit at Point a la Garde Church on Sunday last.

On Saturday evening a meeting of the Presbyterian congregation was held in St. Andrew's Church for the purpose of looking up an early supply for this congregation. It has been decided to extend a call to the Rev. Mr. McKay of Souris, P. E. I., and we trust that we will be successful in securing his services in the near future.

BLACK CAPE.

Rev. E. J. Rattee preached his farewell sermon to this part of his congregation on Sunday evening the 9th.

It was a very interesting and touching address. During his four years as pastor he has laboured faithfully and we can truly say that our loss will be the gain of the people that he is about to go among. Mr. Rattee leaves on Wednesday of this week to take his Church here on Sunday afternoon and declared the pulpit vacant.

Miss Mary Murchie of Black Point,

N. B., is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steele has returned from a visit to Malbay, Chan-del and New Carlisle.

Miss Dorothy Coull left on Monday for her home in Grand Caspella to spend a few days.

Mrs. Alexander Campbell who has been spending a short visit with Mr.

and Mrs. Duncan Campbell left on Friday for her home in Cullen's

Brook.

Mr. H. M. Henderson has returned from a business trip to Chandler.

Mr. J. C. Fair and Mr. Clement

Fairweather have returned from the coast where they purchased some mill machinery.

Mr. George Campbell has gone to Maril Ston where he is loading a car of potatoes for Mr. H. M. Henderson of this place.

Mr. George Steele returned on Monday from a short trip to New Carlisle.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold a meeting in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon next at three o'clock. A large attendance is requested to hear the ladies speak on Mission work.

Miss Hamilton spent the week-end at her home in New Carlisle.

PLAYED JOKE ON THE HUNS

Six Indians Had Fun for Three Days Talking Over a Tapped Telephone Wire.

Because of the nature of the country over which American troops fought in the Meuse-Argonne offensive, the Germans found it easy at times to cut in on our field telephone wires.

The commander of one brigade of artillery was particularly annoyed by enemy wire tappers in a heavily wooded section of the Argonne. Code messages from artillery observers were being intercepted by Boche listeners.

The commander knew, as all artillery men know, that no code is impenetrable when experts get working on it.

The artillery commander took up with the colonel of one of the line regiments the question of the Hun's wiretapping activities. And the colonel hit upon an idea.

Two Indians, both of proud Sioux lineage, members of one of his companies, were assigned as telephone operators. One was to go forward with the artillery observer, the other to remain at the brigade receiving end of the wire which the artillery commander was certain the Germans had tapped somewhere along the line.

Now, when two Sioux Indians get talking together in their own tongue, what they say sounds very much like code talk. Anyway, it raised hell with the code experts of certain German guard units.

The Sioux stuck on their jobs for three days and nights. They and the artillery commander and their own colonel enjoyed the situation immen-sely. If the Germans got any fuss out of it they kept it to themselves.

OLD LONDON BELL FOUNDRIES

Relics of Many of Them Are Still to

Be Found Scattered Through

the British Capital.

In the days before clocks, to say nothing of watches, were common the bells of London occupied a much more important position than they do today. Precious depended on this bell and that to call them very unwillingly to work of a morning and release them very willingly from work of an evening. Some of the bells were requisitioned for all manner of special purposes.

And so there were many bell foundries in the city. Relics of them are found in many places, even if it is only a street name, such as Blitworth street, which, as Mr. Landfear Lucas points out, is a relic of the bell foundry of the 14th century. Some of the bells of the foundries have been melted down for other uses, but many of them are still to be found in the city. The foundry of the 14th century, which was the largest of its kind in the world, has been destroyed. The foundry of
