DROWNED LIKE RATS IN A PIT

STILL ANOTHER APPALLING COLLIERY DISASTER.

An Immense Waterspout Bursts in Hungary, Flooding Numerous Collieries, and the Poor Miners, Unable to Escape, Perish Miserably—The List of Dead Reaches Startling Proportions.

PESTH, May 13.—An immense waterspout burst to-day in the neighborhood of the collieries situated in the city of Fuenfkirchen, the capital of the County of Baranya. The huge volume of water inundated the surrounding country and poured in great streams into the mines, flooding them in a very short time and causing terrible loss of life.

The water poured into the mines so quickly that the unfortunate men who were engaged at work in the lower levels received no warning of their danger, and before they had a chance to escape they were struggling in the torrents which had almost instantaneously engulfed them.

They struggled desperately to reach the shafts or any parts of the mines which seemed likely to afford them a place of safety, but the water rapidly rose higher and higher, and in a short time every avenue of escape was shut off and the men perished miserably.

The water did not reach to the upper levels and the miners working in these portions of the mines made their way to the surface as quickly as possible.

The Work of Rescue.

Thousands of miners and others at once set to work to recover the bodies of the men in the flooded levels.

Every pit was speedily surrounded by men, women and children, and heartrending scenes were witnessed as the bodies were brought up.

It is known that 22 men are dead in one pit alone, and that many more have lost their lives in the other pits. Owing to the great excitement which prevails in the place it is impossible at present to obtain an exact list of all the dead, but it will doubtless reach startling proportions.

EATEN BY CANNIBALS.

Awful Fate of an English Settler in the New Hebrides.

MELBOURNE, Australia, May 13.—The system of dual control of the New Hebrides agreed upon between the French and English Governments works anything but well, and the natives have grown aggressive. This resulted in the recent murder of an Englishman named Sawers by the natives. Sawers and a man named Malcolm went from Victoria to the New Hebrides and bought a plantation near the French settlement. Sawers was murdered by the natives who were employed to work for him without the slightest provocation. Malcolm managed to escape to the mission station of Tangoa, two miles distant. Sawers' body was carried off by cannibals for food.

£1000 DAMAGES FOR LIBEL.

The London Correspondent of The New York World Salted.

LONDON, May 13.—In the case of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cargill, otherwise Tilkin, Mrs. Cargill being better known as Miss Geraldine Ulmar, against E. Tracy Greaves, London correspondent of The New York World, for libel, the jury this afternoon returned a verdict against Greaves for £1000 damages.

The libellous article was published in The New York World in October last as a despatch from London, and suggested that Mr. Cargill, who had been married to Miss Ulmar in the March previous, thought of instituting proceedings against his wife for divorce on the ground of alleged intimacy with Mr. Horace Sedger, manager of the Lyric Theatre, at which both Mr. and Mrs. Cargill were engaged.

No attempt was made on the trial to establish the truth of the libel, the defence presented being that Mr. Greaves was not responsible either for its authorship or its publication.

M. VERY'S FUNERAL.

France's Minister of the Interior Makes a Speech at the Grave.

PARIS, May 13.—The funeral of M. Very, proprietor of the restaurant which was blown up by the Anarchists and who died at the hospital from wounds received, took place to-day. It was attended by an enormous concourse of people.

M. Loubet, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, delivered a speech at the grave. He said M. Very was the victim of his courage in denouncing Ravachol to the police. In a money sense the widow and daughter of the dead man, both of whom had been injured in the explosion, would not suffer, for the Government would make ample provision for their care and maintenance.

M. Loubet severely denounced the Anarchists. The Government, he said, would show itself equal to the task of defending society, which was threatened by these men.

An Organized Vendetta.

LONDON, May 13.—The Chronicle's Paris correspondent says: "A circular of the Anti-Anarchist League, now conducting a well-organized vendetta, declares that it is the intention of the league to compass the murder of some well-known Anarchists for every future Anarchist outrage by means of the knife, poison or vitriol."

A COUNTESS FIRED AT.

Count Kinsky Offers a Reward for the Arrest of the Offender.

PRAGUE, May 13.—Count Octavio Kinsky offers a large reward for the discovery of a person who fired through a window of a huntsman's lodge where Countess Kinsky was waiting for the early dawn to go shooting.

It has been the Countess' custom to take part in midnight deerstalking and capercailzie shooting.

She had received a number of menacing letters in a feminine hand, the last of which warned her not to enter the lodge that night.

THE ULSTER CONVENTION.

The Conviction Strengthening That it Will Be a History-Making Event.

LONDON, May 13.—Mr. J. W. Lowther, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, speaking at a public gathering last night referred to the expressed belief that Ulster would evoke the aid of English loyalists, and said that the result would be that the world would see the sternest contest that had occurred since England was created a nation. On the whole the conviction strengthens that the Ulster convention will be a history-making event.

They Poisoned Husbands And Lovers.

BUDA PESTH, May 13.—At Neusatz yesterday a number of women were placed on trial on the charge of poisoning their husbands and lovers with arsenic. The prisoners, who are beings of low type and of brazen demeanor, denied the charges.

To Consider Their Financial Relations.

LONDON, May 13.—Mr. Goschen in the Commons to-night moved the appointment of a select committee to consider the financial relations of the three kingdoms. He added that the Government declined to treat Wales as a separate entity.

Flashes From the Cable.

Ten thousand foreign Jews in Odessa have been ordered to leave Russia forthwith.

The sale of the collection of pictures belonging to Alexandre Dumas fils began yesterday, realizing 416,125 francs.

The late Minister of Commerce of Hungary, Barossy Bellus, died so poor that his funeral expenses will have to be met from the public funds.

The Prince of Wales, presiding yesterday at the Council of the Naval Exhibition, spoke with animation and in a clear voice and he appeared to be altogether in robust health.

Schulz, the auditor of the Berlin Reichsbank, who was arrested for embezzling funds of the bank, has committed suicide by hanging himself in the cell in which he was confined.

The Anarchist Beala and the woman Soubert, who were acquitted of complicity with Ravachol in the recent trial, have been rearrested on the charge of complicity in the murder of two women at St. Etienne.

Two more bold attempts to blow up Government buildings in Caracas, Venezuela, with dynamite bombs have taken place. No one was injured, but much damage was done.

The London Standard says Timothy Healy has frustrated renewed efforts, supported by the Gladstonian leaders, to reunite the warring Irish parties.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

He Earns $1000 a Week.

The man who can command the largest sum of money for his services is usually the most respected, because he must, in order to command the large sum, have some particular points in which he excels average humanity.

The statement that any one person receives a salary of $1000 a week for doing nothing is not apt to be believed by many, yet it is the truth when the greatest freak of nature the world has ever known, the Italian two-headed boy, is spoken of.

The two-headed boy was born in Locana, a small village near Turin in Italy. His parents are ordinary people of the Italian peasant type, his mother having given birth to seven children, all of ordinary appearance except this particular one. In Italy they are registered as two distinct and separate persons, one head by the name of Giovanni and the other as Giocomo. The two separate organisms blend together at the fifth rib and continue as one, the functional organs acting single, the body being supported by one pair of limbs only. It is the only case of the kind the world has ever known. The engagement will be limited to only one week, as other arrangements have been made that will prevent him remaining in Toronto any longer.

Besides him will appear H. O. Babel, the famed cowboy pianist, who will show his wonderful natural musical ability. With him is his sister, Mattie Babel, the champion female cornetist. As evidence of her popularity she displays a $3000 cornet, presented to her by musical friends. Little Dot, a lady of petite proportions, will show her power over the reptile creation. The Fish and Richmond Amusement Monopoly will appear in the theatre, and as each artist is well known in their particular line a good entertainment is guaranteed.

Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House.

On Monday evening Go-Won-Go-Mohawk, in the "Indian Mail Carrier," will be the attraction at Jacobs & Sparrow's Theatre. It has been here before and is a favorite attraction with Toronto theatre-goers. The star is supported by an unusually strong company this season, the strangle scene in the third act and the desperate bowie-knife fight in the last act being interesting and impressive. Miss Mohawk can do more than lend her native character and appearance to the play, however, as she has a thorough mastery of the English language and can put a good deal of thrill into a melodramatic climax. She has a pleasant appearance on the stage and acts with a good deal of spirit. Her support is good.

New York Ideal Trio.

On Thursday evening of next week (19th inst.) the opportunity will be afforded of hearing the New York Ideal Trio, who have been engaged for a concert in Broadway Tabernacle on that evening. The Ideal Trio, which will then make its first appearance before a Toronto audience, has secured a very enviable reputation in the American cities. It is composed of Miss Bessie Mecklem, saxophone soloist; Mr. H. C. Mecklem, harp soloist, and Miss Russell, elocutionist. The Carlton Quartet will also give several numbers. This makes a strong combination—one that should crowd the spacious and beautiful Tabernacle to the doors.

The Philharmonic Concerts.

The Philharmonic Society, instead of following the usual plan of giving two separate concerts at different times during the winter season, decided this year to combine their concerts and present them to the public in the shape of a musical festival. The dates decided upon being May 17 and 18, the result of this plan of operation has been to give the chorus a better opportunity of overcoming the difficulties and appreciating the beauties of the different works. The soloists engaged are the foremost exponents of their art, and the orchestra is composed of 65 picked professionals.

The works to be presented are Gounod's "Redemption" and Dr. Bridge's dramatic cantata "Callirhoe."

Reserved seats can be secured at Messrs. A. & S. Nordheimer's.

A CORPSE FOR A PRISONER.

AN OLD MAN'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH IN GALT LOCK-UP.

Rolling Round the Streets at 6 p.m., Dead at 10—The Coroner's Jury Find That He Died From an Overdose of Medicine Which He Had Procured From a Doctor.

GALT, Ont., May 13.—Henry O'Neil, aged 50, formerly a blacksmith at Preston, was arrested last night on a charge of drunkenness and placed in the lock-up. Four hours later he was found dead.

An inquest was held to-day, when the result of the post mortem was made known, but it threw no light on the cause of death, all the organs being in a healthy condition.

It came out that O'Neil bought a bottle of medicine from Dr. Robinson of St. Jacob's about 1 o'clock yesterday and came to Galt by train, arriving here about 5 p.m. When O'Neil was arrested he had the bottle in his possession, which was about one-third full, but when the constable found him dead the bottle was empty.

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict that O'Neil came to his death by taking an overdose of a drug administered by himself, not knowing that it was poisonous.

The Sad Fate of Julia McRae, an Orangeville Woman.

ORANGEVILLE, May 13.—An inquest was opened to-night on the body of Julia Ann McRae, aged 22, who died suddenly at the Globe Hotel yesterday, and concerning whose death many rumors are rife.

Her last words were about her lover, a young man of this town. Miss McRae made an ante-mortem statement last week, but it has not been made public. Her parents live at Priceville, where she was raised, and she came to Orangeville four or five years ago.

ELEVEN AND A HALF PER CENT.

Annual Statement of the Business of the Bank of Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 13.—The Bank of Montreal statement, giving the results of the year's business up to April 30, was issued this afternoon.

The statement shows the profits on the year's business to be about 11½ per cent.

The profits for the year ending April 30, after deducting charges of management and making full provision for all bad and doubtful debts, were $1,325,887.03, which, added to balance of profit and loss account on April 30, 1891, $439,728.30, makes a total of $1,765,615.33. From this amount have been deducted two dividends amounting to $1,200,000, which leaves a balance of profit and loss carried forward of $565,615.

The statement is looked upon as satisfactory, showing as it does increased profits on the previous year.

As it is several years since a bonus has been given, it is expected that in view of the increased profits the directors will be able to give a bonus this year. The annual meeting takes place on June 5.

THE IDOL OF THE PEOPLE.

Sarnia's Deputy-Reeve Brutally Assaults Two Young Ladies.

SARNIA, Ont., May 13.—Andrew Crawford, first deputy-reeve, was arrested last night on a charge of assaulting Miss Frances Johnston, daughter of Dr. Johnston, and to-day another complaint has been made against him for assaulting Miss Annie Fleming, daughter of M. Fleming.

The two young ladies were walking along the street last night about 8 o'clock when Crawford, who was under the influence of liquor, met them. He took Miss Johnston by the throat, then struck her in the face and knocked her down. He also struck Miss Fleming and is said to have dragged Miss Johnston along the sidewalk and threatened to cut her throat.

The usual answer was given to the delegates.

The unprecedented demand for this favorite brand of tobacco in the Cut has induced us to offer it in the Plug form, which we are now doing. The smoker will find it to be of exceptionally fine quality, unequaled by any other brands. It is the highest-priced tobacco in the market, but costs no more to the consumer. Our reputation for Fine Mixture Cigarettes ("Hyde Park," "Athlete," "Derby," etc.) and cut tobaccos should be a sufficient guarantee of our producing the best at the lowest possible price consistent with quality. THE OUTLOOK FAVORABLE.

Canada's Trade in a Healthy Condition Compared With Other Years.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Montreal advices to Bradstreet's are that the prospect does not favor an early expansion of trade, although hardware, groceries and shoes are in fairly active demand.

From Toronto the report is of quiet trade, with orders chiefly to piece out stock, but prices of staples are firm and the outlook is said to be favorable.

Bank clearings at Halifax, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton aggregate $20,783,000 this week, 6 per cent. more than last week and 10 per cent. more than in the week a year ago.

Business failures in the Dominion of Canada number 36 this week; last week there were 41 and a year ago there were 30 within a similar period.

COMPULSORY VOTING.

Men With Religious Scruples to be Excused From Casting Their Ballots.

OTTAWA, May 13.—A meeting of the subcommittee appointed to consider Mr. Amyot's bill regarding compulsory voting was held again to-day, when the bill was reported.

The principal changes made to the bill were that anyone who had religious scruples against voting could give the same as a reason and not be compelled to vote.

An elector also could have his name struck from the list at the final revision by stating that he did not want to exercise his franchise.

WHO WAS NEGLIGENT?

The Jury Says That Peter Adams' Death Was Caused by Negligence.

The inquest on the death of Peter Adams was held by Coroner Johnson in No. 3 Police Station yesterday afternoon. Contractor Mathewson and all the men who were working on the house at the time, together with several witnesses of the smash, were examined. The facts brought out showed that the building had been well braced by iron rods passing through the interior. The method of raising the building was very clearly explained. Seventeen jacks were used, five on each of three sides of the building and two supporting the partition in the centre. First one side of the building was raised and then the other. A lengthy discussion took place as to whether this alternate process was the proper way to raise a brick building. Mr. Mathewson and several other witnesses testified that a building could be raised with greater safety in this manner than by raising all sides at once with the jacks.

From the evidence of onlookers it was learned that the roof was the first part of the building to collapse. The weight of this, it is supposed, caused the walls to bulge and give way.

It took the jury nearly an hour to arrive at a verdict, and when at length they had done so it was to the effect that "Peter Adams was killed owing to the negligence of some party or parties who, according to the evidence heard, are unknown."

County Crown Attorney Curry cross-examined each of the witnesses and made it a special point to get them to describe the method of raising the building. Mr. Curry did not like the "alternate method," as it may be called, and seemed to think that it would have been much safer to raise the building on all sides at the same time so as to keep everything level. This may be the better plan and it may not; but there is a fact which should be remembered, and that is that in raising a building one side at a time that side, if raised too high, might cause the building to fall. There will likely be some further investigations.

They Will Wear Their Bonnets.

The 48th Highlanders paraded 295 strong yesterday evening at the Upper Canada College grounds and marched to Wellington-street, where battalion drill and marching past were practised. They then returned to the grounds, where Col. Davidson addressed them, ordering them to parade this afternoon at 3 on the old college grounds to march to Garrison Common and engage in battalion drill.

On Sunday, May 22, the regiment will hold its second church parade, the men to be in full uniform, including the feather bonnets.

Bandmaster Griffith, who has a high reputation in England, has arrived here and will proceed to organize the regimental band.

After the parade the adjourned annual regimental meeting was held, and the following committees were appointed:

Regimental—Captains Robertson, McGillivray and Michie.

Rifle—Majors Macdonald and Henderson and Captain Macdonald.

Band—Major Cosby, Captains Cassels and Currie.

Mess—Captain Hendrie, Lieutenants Maclean and Donald.

Officer on duty at the rifle ranges—Captain McGillivray; for next week, Captain Hendrie.

In Memory of Batoche.

Yesterday was the anniversary of a day that will live long in history—the day on which the 10th Royal Grenadiers, after chafing for two whole days under a galling restraint by a savage horde ensconced in the rifle pits at Batoche, sprang forward and with one dash carried the redoubt and put down the rebellion. The day was duly recognized by the sergeants, who held their annual dinner last night at Harry Webb's. The toast "Our Colonel and Officers" was responded to by Col. Dawson, Capt. Maclean and Capt. Tassie; "The Sister Corps" by Col. Hamilton, Col. Denison and Sergt.-Major Robertson; "The Northwest Field Force" by Lieut.-Col. Grasett, and "Our Brother Non-Coms." by Sergt.-Majors Ironsides, Caldwell, Authors, Spry, Robertson and Ewart. Songs were given by Staff-Sergt. Hutchison, Col.-Sergt. Scully, Sergt.-Major Dawson and Sergt. Parkinson. Prof. Jerry Lee, staff-sergeant of the 38th, presided at the piano. Sergt.-Major Cox occupied the chair and Staff-Sergt. Bewley the vice-chair. Altogether a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Opening of Navigation.

Immense display of mantels, specialties in portable grates and baskets, polished brass and irons, brass and cast fenders. Telephone 855 for catalog. Millichamp's. 246

Professional men are, with few exceptions, supported by their professions and are, therefore, especially interested in life insurance. Their capital is their professional talent, which of course dies with them, but the benefits of which may be perpetuated to their families by an insurance policy in that excellent home institution, the North American Life Assurance Company of this city. 246

Oratory in East York.

In beauteous words the rival spouters now describe the claims of their respective candidates. From some of the speakers the oratory rolls forth like thunder, from others like the moan of the moaning sea, some are roseate, others Demosthenic. Let the reader contrast the flowery speech of these orators with the plain pellucid language in which quinn announces his dollar ties for fifty cents and then hasten to purchase one. 6

The Best Electric Motor for Toronto.

Messrs. Gianelli & Co., 16 King-street west, have just received one hundred cases of the carte blanche extra dry.

BABY TODDLED TO DEATH.

Its Mother Finds the Lifeless Body Floating in the River.

COBOCONK, Ont., May 13.—About dusk last evening the 2-year-old son of Mr. W. H. Brown toddled down to the bank of the river, walked out on a plank that was placed in position for the convenience of dipping up water, and accidentally fell in. The anxious mother in a few minutes missed her boy and rushing down to the river, which is but a few paces from the dwelling, there beheld the lifeless form of her little one.

Drowned in a Cistern.

QUESTIONABLE METHODS.

Church Entertainments Severely Criticised—Systematic Giving Recommended.

A conference of the Society of Systematic and Proportionate Giving was held in the school house of St. Philip's Church last evening. Many prominent clergymen and laymen attended and the discussion of the question proved interesting and profitable.

The feature of the meeting was a paper on "The Church and Modern Methods of Finance," which was read by Rev. Rural Dean Wade. The rev. gentleman severely criticized some of the present methods of raising money for the purposes of the church. The church, he said, is the creation of God, not of man, and should be kept free from worldliness and the methods of the world. Something very different, however, has been obtained, something which is sapping the vitality of the church and destroying its life. These innovations, the speaker continued, were altogether unjustifiable.

According to prevailing ideas, God no longer provides for His church. Churches must "catch the crowd" to make money, and to effect this worldly methods are necessary. The motto of modern churches seems to be, "Make the church a success by any and all means." Socials and like entertainments partially do away with the stiffness and reserve complained of in most congregations. But these advantages, the speaker maintained, were more than counterbalanced by the pride and vain rivalry introduced and encouraged by these means. These methods of raising money are both dishonoring to God and disastrous to the best interests of His church. In catering to the love of worldly pleasure the church is encouraging a dangerous passion, and in the end the church is injured. The speaker instanced many entertainments given under the auspices of churches and quoted a newspaper report of such an entertainment where dancing was prohibited, but this was disregarded, as the report says: "To the strains of beautiful music those present indulged until midnight." He also read an advertisement of a lawn social, which stated: "The refreshments will be all the season's delicacies, and in addition an ambrosial nectar made from the recipe from which the ancients prepared the favorite beverages of their gods." A Toronto paper had stated that the pretty girls at a recent church social in Michigan were labelled, "You may kiss me for 25 cents." Many other instances of a similar nature were given by the reverend speaker, who made an earnest appeal for greater purity in the methods of raising money for the purpose of supporting the Christian Church.

Men's imported natural wool underwear, $1.50 suit, regular price $2.50; fast black cashmere socks, three pairs 70 cents; you can't beat these prices. Largest stock of neckwear in the city. Catching Up.

At this season there is always a slackness in business. J. Fraser Bryce, photographer, 107 King-street west, claims that for months past he has not been able to keep up with his orders, but will now be as usual, all promptness. 246

THE TROLLEY IT IS TO BE.

IT WAS SO DECIDED BY THE COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

A Fight Over The Engineer—Ald. Shaw Outwitted—The Mayor's Oversight Did it—Ald. Hallam as a Buffoon—He Talks Against Time and Wins The Race—A Windy Meeting.

"Now go ahead and get in your electric cars as fast as you can," said the Mayor to Mr. McKenzie of the Street Railway Company when the electric power talk was ended.

All the members of the council were present last night with the exception of Ald. Foster. The chairs around the side outside of the magic circle were all filled and the gallery held a fair-sized crowd anxious to hear the discussion on the adoption of the electric system of motive power for street cars. It took about two hours to come to a decision, which was almost unanimous in favor of the overhead trolley wire.

Ald. Leslie was welcomed back to the fold.

Some Who Wrote.

Communications were received from:

Bain, Laidlaw & Co., on behalf of the Street Railway Co., refusing to agree to the proposed amendment to the street railway agreement providing for the taking up the double tracks in King, Queen and Yonge-streets at any time by the direction of the council, and substitute a single track.

The Public School Board embodying a resolution requesting the council to submit to the vote of the electors who are school supporters the question of raising the $57,600 struck off the estimates.

Every Drunk His Own Lawyer.

The bylaw relating to the speedy trial of drunks passed its third reading.

(3a) Provided, however, when any person is brought to a police station on a charge of being drunk without being disorderly the chief constable of the city or the inspector in charge of such police station may, in any case where it is, so far as is known to said officer, a first or second arrest for such offence, release such person without bringing him before a justice of the peace or police magistrate.

(3b) Any person arrested for the offence of being drunk without being disorderly shall be a competent witness on his own behalf.

Now For Rapid Transit.

In committee the motive power to be adopted by the street railway company was discussed.

Ald. Carlyle started the ball rolling by moving a long resolution, that meant in effect the adoption of the overhead trolley without any of the riders or amendments suggested by the great legal lights. Ald. Hallam moved in amendment that the report of the Board of Works recommending the trolley be laid on the table for two months. Mr. Hallam spoke for about 20 minutes, giving a history of the underground system now working in Chicago. He advised delay and wished it put on record. He said he expected to stand alone, but he was standing in a righteous cause. He was correct in his surmise, he alone voting for the resolution.

The Mayor wanted to add to Ald. Carlyle's motion a clause asking the company to agree to put down single tracks on any streets the City Engineer may desire when new pavements are being laid on the streets. But, as a letter had already been read to the council from the solicitors of the company refusing to do anything of the kind, the Mayor's amendment was voted down.

Ald. Shaw said the overhead was the only practical system in sight. This talk about the Love and storage system was all a bluff. Let us get down to business. Ald Hallam then said if we are going to adopt the overhead system let us do it without any amendments.

In council Ald. Hallam again moved the two months' hoist, which was lost on the following division:

For—The Mayor, Ald. Hallam, Lamb and D. Carlyle—4. Against—Ald. Verral, Leslie, McMurrich, Gowanlock, Maloney, Jolliffe, Crawford, Stewart, Atkinson, Score, Orr, Small, Shaw and Saunders—15. As Ald. Carlyle's motion had been adopted this vote settled the long-drawn-out question of the electric system.

Cunningham Still Out.

The following recommendation of the Board of Works was knocked out by the Executive:

In reference to the permanent appointment of the City Engineer, your committee feel that the time has come when this matter should be finally settled and would, therefore, again recommend that Mr. Granville C. Cunningham be appointed permanently to the position at a salary of $3500 per annum and that an engineer be advertised for.

Ald. Shaw moved that Mr. Cunningham be given the permanent appointment, as his services would be more valuable than those of a stranger.

Ald. Gowanlock stated that as the Executive had reported against the appointment it would take a two-thirds vote to override that committee's recommendation. Ald. Shaw was positive the members of the Executive were not aware of that when they sent the report on to the council.

Ald. Crawford informed the council that the Mayor had distinctly stated at the meeting of the Executive that it would not take a two-thirds vote to settle the question. The Mayor excused himself by saying that he was not aware that Cunningham's salary was to be increased. Ald. Carlyle agreed with and corroborated Ald. Crawford.

Chairman Small then ruled that a two-thirds vote would be necessary. The motion was lost.

In council the matter was re-opened by Ald. Lamb moving to have the clause referred back.

Ald. Shaw said some of the members of the Executive had played a contemptible trick. Ald. Crawford said he did not wish to play a trick on anyone. He had nothing against Mr. Cunningham, but he thought he was not the proper person to be City Engineer and he never would be with his vote.

Ald. Hallam, who was opposed to Cunningham's appointment, then started in to talk against time and succeeded in keeping the floor until 11 o'clock. He talked to beat the band and afforded heaps of amusement to the wearied aldermen.

As it now stands, the Executive report is adopted and an engineer will be advertised for.

TORONTO MEDICAL COLLEGE.

The Appointments Made By the Standing Committee.

The report of the Standing Committee on the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Toronto on the subject of reorganization was presented and adopted by the Senate last night. The staff as reorganized is made up as follows: Professor of Anatomy, Dr. J. H. Richardson; Associate Professor and Demonstrator of Anatomy, Dr. Alexander Primrose; Lecturer on Anatomy, Dr. H. Wilberforce Aikins; nine assistant demonstrators, including the senior assistant, these appointments to be made on the recommendation of the committee after consultation with the Associate Professor and Demonstrator. Professor of Surgery, Dr. W. T. Aikins; Professor of Clinical Surgery, Dr. Irving H. Cameron; Associate Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery, Dr. George A. Peters; Professor of Pathology, Dr. John Caven; Demonstrator of Pathology, this appointment to be made on the recommendation of the committee, after consultation with the professor; professor of medicine and clinical medicine, Dr. J. E. Graham; associate professor of medicine and clinical medicine, Dr. A. McPhedran; lecturer in clinical medicine, Dr. W. P. Caven; professor of pharmacology and therapeutics, Dr. J. M. McCallum; demonstrator of materia medica and pharmacy, Dr. O. R. Avison; professor of gynæcology, Dr. Uzziel Ogden; professor of obstetrics, Dr. Adam H. Wright; professor of ophthalmology and otology, Dr. R. A. Reeve; clinical lecturer in ophthalmology, Dr. G. A. Burnham; clinical lecturer in laryngology and rhinology, Dr. G. McDonagh; professor of hygiene, Dr. W. Oldright; professor of medical psychology, Dr. D. Clark.

It will be observed that it is proposed to discontinue the professorship of primary anatomy, held by Dr. M. H. Aikins, that of medical jurisprudence (including toxicology), held by Dr. W. W. Ogden, and that of chemistry, held by Dr. Ellis, and that Dr. Wright has resigned his chair. It was recommended that, as was done in the case of Dr. Thorburn, each of these gentlemen be appointed an emeritus professor under the statute.

For some years, under the permissive powers of the statute, the faculty have arranged a summer session. Of these arrangements, or the fees in respect thereof, neither the senate nor the bursar have any cognizance. The situation has now changed, by reason of the fact that the Medical Council has prescribed a summer session, and the committee recommend that this subject be referred to this committee for enquiry and report.

FOR THE SIGHTLESS MAN.

The World's Fund For John Milson Grows Steadily.

The Milson fund is growing slowly but surely and we expect it to grow much more rapidly when the deserving nature of the case is more widely known and spoken about. If there is anything that can cheer the sightless man in his terrible affliction it is the knowledge that so many people have shown their practical sympathy with him in his sad misfortune. One lady in forwarding her contribution reveals such a fine spirit in doing so that we desire to print her short note. She says:

Mrs. D. encloses her mite of $1 for the poor blind man, Milson, and thanks you for the opportunity of so doing.

A "mite" given in that spirit is worth something.

The following were the contributions received yesterday:

	$ 5

ECONOMY IN THE SCHOOL BOARD

They Will Make Their Own Ink and Save Money.

The Supplies Committee of the Public School Board met yesterday, Mrs. McDonnell and Messrs Hambly, Baird, Whitesides and Kerr present, with Mr. Kerr in the chair. The most striking feature of the meeting was the mingled solemnity and hilarity with which the committee poked their noses over a sample of violet ink which was submitted and which possessed an odor as vivid as the color. A number of accounts were approved and tenders were opened for the supply of ink. At Mr. Bishop's suggestion, the committee decided to try the experiment of making their own ink for this year, it being anticipated that the cost will be less than half that of the lowest tender, while, as Mr. Hughes observed, the quality could not well be worse.

Samples of young plants had accompanied the tenders for plants, and in the inspection of them Mrs. McDonnell did "yeo-woman" service, her familiarity with the subject contrasting with the helpless manner in which the men pawed about the samples. The lowest tender was accepted on her motion.

In the Sites and Buildings Committee the chief matter considered was the grievance of Crawford-street School against the Berean Methodist Church. The snow from the church flies on the grounds of the school and gives the caretaker much unnecessary labor. The committee referred the matter to the School Board's solicitor.

The Sunday World.

The Sunday World of to-morrow's date will contain the latest local and telegraph news. The very freshest society news is contributed by Lorna Doone, who is enabled to publish in The World the social events of the latter half of each week, at least six days in advance of any other publication. Mr. Frank Yeigh, President of the Young Liberals' Club, contributes a very fine article on the daily life of the Hon. Oliver Mowat; the theological interest is maintained in an article on Rev. W.S. Rainsford of New York, a well-known ex-Torontonian; a lengthy, chatty review of the red letter nights of the past dramatic season by the dramatic critic, Touchstone, is a good feature. Lazzaroni, Belle Weaver and others contribute short sketches of current interest, and some space is devoted to the topic of bicycle riding on Sunday.

It may be of interest to add that one of the most striking contributions to critical literature ever offered in this country will appear in the issue of the 22nd inst., being a review of "Indian Girls in Modern Fiction" by E. Pauline Johnson, the famous Indian authoress.

DATES OF MILITIA CAMPS.

WHERE THE VOLUNTEERS WILL GO UNDER CANVAS.

The Majorship of the Tenth Royals—Promotions in the Toronto Battalions—Deposits in the Government Savings Banks—Inland Revenue Receipts—Chit-Chat of the Capital.

OTTAWA, May 13.—To-morrow's Canada Gazette will contain militia general orders fixing the following dates for militia camps this summer:

District No. 1, London, June 21 to July 2.
District No. 2, Niagara, June 14 to June 25.
District Nos. 3 and 4, Kingston, June 14 to June 25.
District Nos. 3 and 4, Brockville, June 21 to July 2.
District Nos. 3 and 4, Ottawa, June 21 to July 2.
District No. 5, Compton, June 21 to July 2.
District No. 6, St. John's, June 28 to July 9.
District No. 7, Levis, July 4 to July 15.

The Toronto Corps.

The militia general orders contain the usual camp regulations and a number of changes and promotions, amongst them the following in Toronto battalions:

Tenth Royals—To be lieutenant, Second Lieutenant Cesare James Marani, R.S.I., vice A. H. Macdonell, appointed to the infantry school corps; to be second lieutenant provisionally, Arthur Wellesley Croil, gentleman, vice A. C. F. Boulton, promoted. Lieut. Alexander Claude Forster Boulton resigns his commission. Second Lieutenant John William Seymour Corley retires from the service. It was confidently expected that the new major of the corps would be gazetted also, and I understand that the appointment has actually been made, but at the last moment, for some reason unknown, it was decided to hold the announcement over for a while.

48th Battalion, "Highlanders," Toronto—To be captain, Lieut. Charles Albert Hunter, R.S.I., vice James Wilson Gray, who retires from the service. To be lieutenants, William House Orchard, G.S.I., from retired list of majors, and John Frederick Ramsay, gentleman (provisionally).

DULL DAY IN THE HOUSE.

"A Foul-Mouthed Slander," Says Mr. Hazen to Mr. Davies.

OTTAWA, May 13.—The House has been in supply all afternoon and evening up to midnight, and got through a few items in Public Works estimate, although the greater part of the session was wasted in a long and somewhat acrimonious discussion on the item for increased terminal facilities at St. John.

Mr. Davies made one of his characteristic assertions that part of the money paid for the Harris property was used in the general elections, which drew forth an indignant danial from Mr. Hazen, who said that any one who would make that assertion was "a foul-mouthed slanderer." The surprise of the evening, however, was the speech of the Hon. Michael Adams, who denounced the purchase as a job. Mr. Adams' outburst, however, had no effect, as the item passed without even a division being taken.

A LIBERAL CAUCUS.

To Fight the Redistribution Bill—Mr. Devlin's Home Rule Motion.

OTTAWA, May 13.—The third Opposition caucus was held this morning, at which it is understood it was again determined to fight the redistribution bill, although some of the rank and file object to being kept here all summer. The only other business transacted, it is understood, was the acceptance of two resolutions to be moved by Messrs. Armstrong and Devlin, of which notice is given to-night. Mr. Armstrong's motion is that the Northwest Assembly should, after the next elections there, be given power to deal with the subject of education and the use of dual language in the courts and the Assembly.

Mr. Devlin's motion reads: "That in the opinion of the House of Commons of Canada the time has arrived when a substantial measure of Home Rule should be granted to Ireland, and this House expresses the hope that at the approaching general elections in the United Kingdom a majority will be returned to Parliament pledged to enact a measure which, while safeguarding the unity and interests of the British Empire, will satisfy the legitimate and national aspirations of the Irish people by granting to them a parliament with jurisdiction over all matters of a local character." The motion will probably come up on Monday, when a lively time may be expected.

The Criminal Law Amendments.

OTTAWA, May 13.—At a meeting of the Joint Committee on the Criminal Law bill to-day some 557 clauses were passed. An important question was raised as to whether the Dominion Parliament had the right to give jurisdiction to criminal courts. Some members of the committee, which, it may be mentioned, sat with closed doors, held that this power belonged to the provinces. The question was allowed to stand as Sir John Thompson was not present.

The Weather.

The Weather To-Morrow.

FAIR

The weather prophet at the Observatory predicts a model spring Sunday for to-morrow. His forecast suggests a warm, sunny Sabbath. The trees are just sprouting their buds and the birds will be twittering their merriest notes. It will be a day that will reproach the wearer of a winter hat. The season has been so backward that many men have deferred the selection of a spring hat. But to be in keeping with the spirit of springtime that will fill the air with joyous brightness to-morrow it will be well to think of the hat to-day. The very latest and choicest productions in lightweights for spring wear made by Dunlap, Heath, Christy, Lincoln, Bennett & Co., Woodrow, Youman, Press are to be found at W. & D. Dineen's, and the stores remain open till 10.30 to-night.
