Fair Notes

Watford Fair, Oct. 10 and 11. The last and the best.

Make your entries in good time and have your exhibits on the ground early. Get a member's ticket from the Secretary without delay. The managers have secured a merry-go-round for the youngsters.

Tickets will be sold for the grand stand this year to prevent delay in making change. Single fare on the G. T. R. will enable your friends from a distance to come to

It will be worth the price of admission to see the trials of speed.

Remember that the exhibit of vegetables, grain and fruit is not likely to be large unless eyery one helps by making an exhibit of their best. You may be the one with the best. Get it ready and bring it along. Your little bit will help.

An Elgin county Magistrate has decided that J. Vogen of Rodney was within the law in putting fifty-seven bottles of whiskey in his home for his own use. Rodney was under local option, but at 4 o'clock September 16 he stocked up. The claim was made that he had violated the local option by law but the defend the local option by-law, but the defend-ant asserted he was justified under the new temperance measure, and the Magistrate upheld him in this view.

Lieut.-Col. Bradley Leaves the 149

Camp Borden, Ont. Sept. 26.—Lieut.-Col. T. B. Bradley, O. C. 149th Battalion, announced to-day his decision of giving up the command of his unit in order to enter again the medical branch of the service, in which he feels he can be of greater immediate service.

service, in which he feels he can be of greater immediate service.

Col. Bradley's decision has been reached owing to his expectation that the 149th Battalion will spend the winter in Canada and the practical certainty that, on reaching England, it will be broken up for reinforcements for drafts. Col. Bradley applied for his transfer some weeks ago and expects to leave for overseas in about three weeks' time. He will hold the brevet rank of lieutenant-colonel in the A. M. C.
Capt. Trainor, adjutant of the batonel in the A. M. C.

Capt. Trainor, adjutant of the battalion, to-day spoke of the regret which the officers of the battalion feel in losing Col. Bradley. Credit for the organization and recruiting of the battalion in a large measure was given to Col. Bradley.

Quite an epidemic of hog cholera has developed on the townline Enniskillen and a great number have had to be slaughtered. Mr. Stonehouse, Norwood bennis, Mr. Maw and others have been losers. The Government inspector has investigated and ordered all hogs killed that have been exposed to it and they hope now to have the scourge wiped out.

WHEN PIGS WERE CHEAP

XXXX

TN YOUR grandfather's day—ask him about it—you could buy a dressed hog for three dollars; a nice big pig. And a live pig would cost you no more.

> Everything in those bygone days was cheap-that is, the things of common use.

> Clothes, boots, milk, bread, beefsteak, eggs, butter, lumber, farm labor, domestic servants—they all cost a good deal less than they do today.

> It cost less to live—and less to be born—and less to die fifty years ago than today.

> And it cost much less to publish a country weekly fifty years ago than it does today-very much less.

> Yet you paid—or your grandfather did—just a dollar a year—the same as you are paying today.

> But the dollar rate must yield to the pressure of necessity. We must do now what we ought to have done years ago—raise the price of The Guide-Advocate to $1 50. The tremendously increased costs of paper, ink, supplies, and the more-than-doubled cost of living have made us "furiously to think." And so, on and after December 1st the price of The Guide-Advocate will be $1.50 a year.

Good Readers All

If you were in our place, and knew all we know about the higher costs of publishing, you would wonder why we didn't make the advance long ago. We trust you to meet the new rate with a smile. Not for 50 cents a year will you say "Stop my paper."

BUT IT IS OUR DUTY TO LET YOU KNOW 'NOW WHAT'S COMING
