

P. C. I. ROLL OF SERVICE

514. Robert E. Woodcock, Lieut. (Infantry).
515. Edmund T. G. Young, Spr. (Royal Engineers).
516. John F. T. Young, Mate and Pte. (Naval Patrol Service and Special Work for British Admiralty).
517. George F. Zimmerman, Capt. (Dental Corps—Special Surgeon attached to Air Force and Medical Corps).

-
1. Ivy L. Anderson, Nursing Sister (Medical Corps).
 2. May Bagshaw, Nursing Sister (Medical Corps).
 3. Norma Emery, V.A.D. Nurse (St. John Ambulance Corps).
 4. Jessie Lang, Ward Aid (Vocational Work).
 5. Olive Lasby, Ward Aid (Vocational Work).
 6. Violet Moore, V.A.D. Nurse (St. John Ambulance Corps).
 7. Kathleen Platt, Masseuse.
 8. Laurie K. Stinson, Nursing Sister (Medical Corps).
 9. Edith C. Whitlam, Nursing Sister, Royal Red Cross (Medical Corps).
 10. Ida E. A. Whitlam, Nursing Sister (Medical Corps).
 11. Violet M. Woolner, V.A.D. Nurse (St. John Ambulance Corps).
 12. Florence L. Wright, Ward Aid (Vocational Work).

NOTE.

P. C. I. was also represented in the War by Major G. W. Keith, a member of the Staff of the School, and Major E. H. A. Watson, a former member of the Staff, both of whom were connected with the Infantry. Mr. A. E. O'Neill and Mr. L. J. White, who served as Lieutenants in the Artillery, joined the Staff after the close of the War.