DISEASE BANISHED AS BY MAGIC.

Wonderful scientific discovery of Dr. Adkin of the New York Institute of Science. By combining two of nature's subtle forces he has produced a new force, which eradicates nearly all human diseases with such rapidity as to carry one back to the day of childhood.

It does not make any difference how long standing your complaint is, you can be cured. Patients successfully treated at their own homes. Any one can soon learn how to use this marvellous force, and cure himself.

Methods endorsed by the most prominent Clergymen, Physicians and Scientists of both America and Europe. The startling cures are the reigning sensation of the day. All Paris and London wild over them. Complete information regarding the nature and use of this wonderful discovery, together with the personal experience of a large number of people who have tried the treatment, is given in the October number of the New Scientist - Herald, a free copy of which will be sent to any one who is interested.

If you are sick write to-day and be restored to health and strength. Positively no medicine used. Nothing to sell. Address: New Scientist Herald, Clerk 274, Ellwanger Building, Rochester, N. Y.
