

from commencement. Such forms of process as are constantly required by Sessions and Presbyteries, will, after careful revision, be inserted. The general principles for the conducting of Discipline in Sessions and Presbyteries will be briefly stated, with a reference to the best authorities. A historical introduction will be given, tracing the rise and progress of the Church, and defining its present position.

The Rev. Alex. F. Kemp is prepared to proceed with the editing and publishing of this Book as soon as 300 subscribers can be obtained. Ministers and elders of the Church are requested to aid in this matter, and to send the name of subscribers either to the Rev. Mr. Reid, Toronto, or to the Editor, Montreal, on or before the 1st of September. The book will be an octavo volume of 208 pages at least, and will be published at a cost of 4s. 6d. per copy. If 500 subscribers can be obtained the price will be reduced.

CHRISTIAN HOPE: By John Angell James; New York: Robert Carter and Brothers. Sold by D. McLellan, Hamilton, and J. G. Geikie, Toronto.

This is a late volume by Mr. James, whose writings are well known to the Christian world. The volume treats of the Christian grace of 'hope' viewed in the various aspects and relations in which it is set forth in the Word of God. It has all the excellencies which distinguish the other writings of Mr. James. It is dedicated to his Colleague in the Ministry, the Rev. Robert William Dale. The venerable author sends it out as containing his latest as well as his earliest views of the truth as it is in Jesus.

THE VOICE OF CHRISTIAN LIFE IN SONG: OR HYMNS AND HYMN WRITERS OF MANY LANDS AND AGES; New York: R. Carter and Brothers. Sold by D. McLellan, Hamilton.

The object of this interesting and delightful little volume is to trace historically the stream of evangelical faith, and the thoughts and feelings set forth in the Hymns which have been in use in the Church from age to age. From the hymns of the Bible and of the Primitive Church the author comes down to those of the Greek and Latin Churches, and afterwards considers in succession the mediæval Hymns—the hymns of Germany,—of Sweden,—of England,—and the hymns of the Church of Rome since the Reformation. Most of the translations are new, and reflect great credit on the author. It is interesting to read these songs which have cheered the hearts of Christians in various ages. One end which they cannot but serve is to set forth and illustrate the unity of faith and hope which binds together all the children of God from one age to another.

THE TWO PAGES, AND OTHER STORIES; by A. L. O. E. New York: R. Carter and Bros. Sold by D. McLellan, Hamilton.

This is a little book which will, we doubt not, be a special favorite with the young, especially with those who have read the other delightful stories of A. L. O. E.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SABBATH SCHOOL VISITOR: published monthly in double numbers; Philadelphia. Agent for Canada, Rev. A. Kennedy, London, C. W.

This very useful paper for Sabbath Schools, is already known to many of our readers, though not yet sufficiently appreciated; however, its introduction into the schools is gradually increasing. By ordering it through the Agent notified above, Ministers and Superintendents of Sabbath Schools can obtain it considerably cheaper than formerly, and receive it per mail, with a small charge of Canadian postage,—20 copies will be supplied for $3 per annum, 40 for $5, and so on at same rate. There is one small but important section of the paper, the proper use of which will be a great benefit to the young, in leading them to search and know the Scriptures. It is entitled "The Visitor's Questions," the answers to be given by the Scholars, after having at home carefully examined their Bibles. This is an exercise which, if steadily pursued, cannot fail to make young minds well acquainted with Scripture facts and truths,—an attainment which we fear is far from being common. How many, not only of the young, but of the old, are marked by a deplorable lack of such knowledge! But this ought not at all to be, in a land of the Bible, and of Gospel teaching. While urging special attention henceforth to the hint now given, we would strongly recommend a little book, published by the Presbyterian Board, bearing the title of "The Visitor's Questions," and containing, under heads, a large number of questions formerly propounded. The series is still continued. Sabbath School Teachers, by devoting a short time in their classes weekly to the exercise now commended to them, would soon see pleasing evidence of its profitableness to those under their charge, and in course of time, not a few of them might become "mighty in the Scriptures."

THE BIBLICAL REPERTORY AND PRINCETON REVIEW.

THIS able Periodical has now completed the 29th volume,—thus its course has not been a short one; nor does it show any symptoms of falling off, but promises to be still a rich quarterly feast of instruction and literary enjoyment for many years to come. We do not know a better—we might say an equal—work for Ministers and Theological Students; indeed for all intelligent and inquiring Christians. It can be got through the Rev. Andrew Kennedy, London, C. W., at the reduced price of $2 50c., which includes the charges of United States postage, and there is only 2d. of Canadian postage to pay on each number. By sending the names of new subscribers, with that sum to Mr. Kennedy, the work will be regularly forwarded per mail, from Philadelphia, in January, April, July, and October.
