

---

 EDITORIAL NOTICES.

---

THE attention of the editors has been drawn to a letter in one of the Halifax papers, which would convey the impression that the "Church Chronicle" is published by the authority of the Governors of King's College. The editors think it right to state that they publish it entirely on their own responsibility, and that they do so as Clergymen, anxious to meet the requirements of their brethren, and not as officers of the College.

We have added four pages to our present issue, in order to keep up with our correspondence without trenching on our other matter. We take this opportunity of reminding our subscribers that our periodical contains nothing but readable matter, and derives no aid from advertisements.

The contribution entitled "Remains and Reminiscences of Ancient Rome," from the pen of one of the oldest graduates of King's College, will be read with much interest. It was originally prepared as an academical lecture, which will account for some of the expressions that occur in it.

We have been induced to omit the remainder of the paper on J. H. Newman, partly from the expressed conviction of several of our friends that it was not suitable for a periodical intended for all classes, and partly from the length to which it would have run, the departure of its able writer from the Province having put it out of our power to obtain it in an abbreviated form.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Several papers have been unavoidably omitted this month. They will appear in our next number.

A correspondent points out an error in Belcher's usually most accurate Almanack for this year. It occurs in the column for the "equation of time," in which slow is used for fast throughout September, October, November, and December. The error is of course merely typographical, but it is very important.

D. C. S.—The next Annual General Meeting of the Society, will be held on Wednesday, October 4, at 2 o'clock, P. M. By order of the Committee.

EDWIN GILPIN, Sec'y.

The Secretary has sent the usual number of copies of the twenty-seventh Report to each of the Local Committees.

LETTERS RECEIVED.—Rev. R. Payne, Rev. J. Pearson, Rev. H. Stamer, Rev. D. C. Moore, Rev. J. A. Richey, Rev. P. J. Filleul, C. E. Kaulbach. Many thanks for the kind suggestions of some of our correspondents, which we will endeavor to comply with.

MARRIED.—August 1, at St. Oswald's Church, Chester, by the Rev. Roger Bickerstaffe, vicar of Killead, assisted by the Rev. W. Harrison, vicar, the Rev. Thomas Day Ruddle to Harriet, third daughter of the late Rev. R. Bickerstaffe, rector of Boylestone, Derbyshire.—Liverpool Mercury, Aug. 5, 1865.

---

The Nova Scotia Church Chronicle is published on the second Wednesday in each month. Terms: Fifty Cents for six months, payable in advance.