$12,000 GIVEN TO SUBSCRIBERS IN CASH THE GRANDEST OFFER EVER MADE BY ANY PUBLISHER. Instead of spending $12,000 this year in giving away sample copies to readers throughout the U.S., we have decided upon the following novel contest for the purpose of advertising and getting our publication talked about from one end of the country to the other. We have taken 4,895 white pea beans, filled it with ordinary white pea beans, poured the beans into an ordinary pint fruit jar such as is used for preserving fruit, sealed it securely, and deposited it with a Brooklyn Trust Company. It cannot be opened or counted until April 15th, 1890, and no person now knows how many beans the jar contains. The following 4895 PRESENTS will be GIVEN to the 4895 persons making the BEST GUESSES of the NUMBER OF BEANS the JAR CONTAINS: 1 Present to the person guessing the correct number, $1,500; nearest the correct number, 1,000; making the next best guess, 500; persons making next best guess, $100 each, 500; 25 persons making next best guess, 50 each, 1,250; 50 persons making next best guess, 25 each, 1,250; 100 persons making next best guess, 10 each, 1,000; 200 persons making next best guess, 5 each, 1,000; 4,000 persons making next best guess, 25 cents each, 1,000. 4,895 Presents, Amounting to $12,000. Total of the rest who subscribe and send a guess, whether correct or not, we will give an elegant piece of silverware, valued at 50 cents or more, so that EVERY subscriber gets a present worth more than the subscription price. SEND YOUR GUESS with name and address plainly written on a piece of paper the size of a postal card, and it will be recorded on our books at once. No charge is made for the card, but in order to introduce our new and well established publication, THE POST AND TRIBUNE, into new homes, we require that each one answering this and sending a guess shall become a subscriber to our publication for at least three months and send us thirty cents in postage stamps, postal note or silver, or fifty cents for six months' subscription, which entitles the subscriber to two guesses, one at 10 o'clock on April 15th, 1890, by the committee chosen by the subscribers, and the other at 10 o'clock on April 15th, 1890, by the committee chosen by the subscribers. Should two or more persons guess the correct number, then the one whose guess is first received will receive the $1,500 and the next the $1,000, and so on. YOUR SUBSCRIPTION FREE! If you will work among your acquaintances and form a club, we will give you six months' subscription for $1.50, or three months' for $1.00, or one month for 50c. Each subscription to be accompanied with guess opposite name in plain figures. We send 6 six months' subscriptions for $2.50, 12 for $5, 24 for $10, and each subscriber is entitled to two guesses. We send three yearly subscriptions for $2.50, six for $5, twelve for $10, twenty-four for $20, and each yearly subscriber is entitled to four guesses. THE POST AND TRIBUNE is one of the largest, handsomest and best publications issued from Brooklyn. It contains eleven large pages, 61 long columns completely filled with no word and colored reading for every member of every American home. It is beautifully illustrated, besides devoting two entire pages to Fashion Plates of the latest designs, and one or two pages to Cooking and Household Instruction. The subscription price has been reduced to only $1.00 a year. We have been so long before the public that it ought to be a scientific guarantee that we will do as we say. If we are not, we will refund your money. If you are not, we will refund your money. Money in y. b. sent by Postal Note, Registered Letter or P. O. Order. THE POST AND TRIBUNE, No. 66 Court Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. CUT THIS OUT AND SECURE A CLUB. IT WILL NOT APPEAR AGAIN.
