MESSENGER ITEMS.

Once more we wish all the readers of the MESSENGER a merry Christmas, and we promise not to forget them at the Holy Sacrifice on the morning of that great and consoling feast. We shall beg the Sacred Heart of the Child Jesus to send them all His heavenly messengers of peace. He will surely discern in all Associates of the Apostleship not only men of good-will, with promises for the future, but zealous doers in His service and ardent lovers about to shelter Him in their hearts on that day when His own knew Him not.

In turn, we are confident that the Directors shall not be forgotten in the prayers of the Associates. It is when difficulties, never wanting, have to be overcome that the Directors experience the benefit of that intercession with the Divine Heart of our Lord. They gladly avail themselves of this opportunity to thank the Members of the League for that spiritual assistance.
