

The fee for attendance for each term of the course is $25, payable in advance to the Sub-Treasurer, who is also the Secretary of the Law Society.

The Rules which should be read for information in regard to attendance at the Law School are Rules 154 to 167 both inclusive.

EXAMINATIONS.

Every applicant for admission to the Law Society, if not a graduate, must have passed an examination according to the curriculum prescribed by the Society, under the designation of "The Matriculation Curriculum." This examination is not held by the Society. The applicant must have passed some duly authorized examination, and have been enrolled as a matriculant of some University in Ontario, before he can be admitted to the Law Society.

The three law examinations which every student and clerk must pass after his admission, viz., first intermediate, second intermediate, and final examinations, must, except in the case to be presently mentioned of those students and clerks who are wholly or partly exempt from attendance at the School, be passed at the Law School Examinations under the Law School Curriculum hereinafter printed, the first intermediate examination being passed at the close of the first, the second intermediate examination at the close of the second, and the final examination at the close of the third year of the school course respectively.

Any student or clerk who under the Rules is exempt from attending the lectures of the School in the second or third year of the course is at liberty to pass his second intermediate or final examination or both, as the case may be, under the Law Society Curriculum instead of doing so at the Law School Examinations under the Law School Curriculum, provided he does so within the period during which it is deemed proper to continue the holding of such examinations under the said Law Society Curriculum. The first intermediate examination under that curriculum has been already discontinued, and that examination must now be passed under the Law School Curriculum at the Law School Examinations by all students and clerks, whether required to attend the lectures of the first year or not. It will be the same in regard to the second intermediate examination after May, 1893, after which time that examination under the Law Society Curriculum will be discontinued. Due notice will be hereafter published of the discontinuance of the final examinations under that curriculum.

The percentage of marks which must be obtained in order to pass an examination of the Law School is fifty-five per cent. of the aggregate number of marks obtainable, and twenty-nine per cent. of the marks obtainable upon each paper.

Examinations are also held in the week commencing with the first Monday in September for those who were not entitled to present themselves for the earlier examination, or who, having presented themselves, failed in whole or in part.

Students whose attendance upon lectures has been allowed as sufficient, and who have failed at the May examinations, may present themselves at the September examinations, either in all the subjects or in those subjects only in which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable in such subjects. Those entitled, and desiring, to present themselves at the September examinations must give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Law Society, at least two weeks prior to the time of such examinations, of their intention to present themselves, stating whether they intend to do so in all the subjects, or in those only in which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable, mentioning the names of such subjects.

The time for holding the examinations at the close of the term of the Law School in any year may be varied from time to time by the Legal Education Committee, as occasion may require.

On the subject of examinations reference may be made to Rules 168 to 174 inclusive, and to the Act R.S.O. (1887), cap. 147, secs. 7 to 10 inclusive.

HONORS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND MEDALS.

The Law School examinations at the close of term include examinations for Honors in all the three years of the School course. Scholarships are offered for
