Anticipation.

BY JOHN IMBIE, TORONTO, ONT.

A CHILD of Hope!—See yonder playful band
Of children on the shifting shores of Fate,
While tides deceitful round them circulate,
Are busy building castles on the sand!

Rude waves disperse them to their mud-
built cot
Where safety dwells—their "castles" all forgot!

How oft we build our hopes on shifting sand
To see them fall and crumble at our feet,
When treacherous tides and waves of trouble
beat,

Driving us back to safe and solid land!
Build on the Rock if thou would'st stand life's test!

Choose not a shadow when the substance strong Remains when suns have set and nights are long!

The eagle builds on highest heights her nest!
Anticipation!—draft on Hope sublime!
Too oft: dishonour'd at the Bank of Time!

Exhaustion

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

Overworked men and women, the nervous, weak and debilitated will find in the Acid Phosphate a most agreeable, grateful and harmless stimulant, giving renewed strength and vigor to the entire system.

Dr. Edwin S. Vose, Portland, Maine, says: "I have used it in my own case when suffering from nervous exhaustion, with gratifying results. I have prescribed it for many of the various forms of nervous debility, and it has never failed to do good"

Splendid Enthusiasm—
We're doing a splendid business every day. The store is entertaining crowds of visitors together with buyers who come for goods as advertised. The enthusiasm of brisk sales keeps departments on a racing pace, and vast quantities of merchandise are being distributed at nominal rates. We can afford to be liberal with those who made the store what it is. Every possible advantage we get in the buying is turned over to you in the selling. The next few weeks will illustrate that fact more forcibly than anything we've ever done. Watch the papers and expect to be surprised. We're ripe with ideas for trade betterment, and results will be decidedly to your interests.
