J. & J. Yorston acknowledge receipt for Foreign Mission of two parcels school materials, viz., one for Mr Geddie's school and one for Mr Gordon's—value, £2 each—from Prince Street Church Sabbath School.

One of the boxes goods from Prince Edward Island acknowledged in the November number of the Register was contributed by the Rev J. McLeod's congregation, St Eleanors, and was valued at £30 Island currency.

Pictou, February 20, 1858.

The Treasurer of the Mission Education Fund acknowledges the receipt of the following sums:—
 Prince st Sab. School, Pictou £2 14 0
 Alexander Frazer, Esq., N. G. 10 5

MONTREAL, Jan. 27, 1858

To the Treasurer of the Nova Scotia Foreign Mission Fund.

DEAR SIR,—

At the Annual Soiree of the children attending the United Presbyterian Church (Dr Taylor's) Sabbath-School, held here on the evening of the 21st instant, the amount collected in the School during the past year for missionary purposes was voted away.

In accordance with their resolution (which I subjoin) I have much pleasure in enclosing you Bank B-N. A. Draft for the sum of Thirty-six Dollars ($36).

In acknowledging receipt, a short extract from the last report of the Rev Mr Geddie, with a copy of your publication, addressed to the children, would be very acceptable, and might tend to stimulate to increased zeal in this good work.

With christian regards,

I am, sir,

Yours respectfully,

WM. ROBB.

Resolved, "That the balance in hand, say eight pounds (one pound has been added since), be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Foreign Mission Fund in Nova Scotia as a donation from this School to aid the Aneiteum Mission."
