18	6. Combine the following sentences so as to form a connected narrative :— Two young bears left their native woods. They came to a bee-hive. The bee-hive was well stored with honey. They were delighted with their discovery. They hastily overturned it. They began to eat voraciously. The bees were not to be deprived of the fruits of their labor with impunity. They flew about the bears. They stung them severely in the ears. They stung them severely in the eyes. The bears endeavored in vain to repel the attacks of their nimble foes. They were at last forced to retreat to the woods. They were maddened with the pain. They were blinded with rage. Their sufferings at last subsided. They had leisure to reflect upon their conduct. They lamented their folly. They resolved to profit by sad experience. Pleasure is often bought with pain.
16	7. Tell the following, in prose :— In Grecian annals it remained untold, But may be read in Eastern legend old, How, when great Alexander died, he bade That his two hands uncovered might be laid Outside the bier, for men therewith to see— Men who had seen him in his majesty — That he had gone the common way of all, And nothing now his own in death might call; Nor of the treasures of two empires aught Within those empty hands unto the grave had brought.
