

MARRIED.

On Wednesday, 25th September, at the residence of the bride's brother, Chatham, by Professor Reginald of Knox College, R. J. Hunter, Esq., Toronto, to Annie Isabella, youngest daughter of Dr. Killa, Chatham

DIED.

In Elphra, Illinois, U.S.A., on Sept. 24th, 1872, Mr. John McMillan, after a severe and lingering illness at the age of 65.

Mr. McMillan was an elder in Knox Church, since its organization and was always a regular attendant at church on Sabbath. He was a member of the choir and of the meetings of society, till failing health compelled him to remain in his house. He was a native of Lochacation, Scotland. He came to this country over thirty years ago, and settled on the farm on which he died. Shortly after his arrival in this country, he was afflicted with a chronic disposition and liberal toward every good cause presented, in a special manner to the church of his home. He was always a home to the ministers of his church. He suffered very much, but while he lived, he was sustained by grace, and I fell asleep in hope of that rest that remains to the people of God. The great assembly spontaneously gathered together to look upon his venerable face for the last time, and to follow his remains to the grave, was a noble and eloquent tribute to his departed worth.

Full weight and strength of Hippocratic phlegm will sustain and tone the nervous system, and it is necessary precaution against consumption and fatality.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

Fifth Year.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART.

THE ALDINE:

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY JOURNAL

claimed to be the

HANDSOMEST PAPER IN THE WORLD.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness." Henry Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or merely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition or in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine work or engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American people would recognize and heartily support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standing of illustrated publications. That so many weekly wicked sheets exist and thrive is no evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would be anxious during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American Artists.

W. T. RICHARDS, GRAY, PERKINS, Wm. HART, F. O. C. DARTLEY, Wm. HART, VICTOR NEBLE, GEORGE SMILEY, Wm. H. WILCOX, AUG. WELZ, JAMES H. BRADB, JAMES SHIRRY, H. E. PRATT, FRANK LEARD, PAUL DIXON, J. HOWE

The pictures are being reproduced without regard to cost by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the very severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, to much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been entrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, who has given assurances of assistance from most of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

THE VOLUME FOR 1872, will contain nearly 300 pages, and about 250, fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful tinted picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.

The Christmas number for 1872 will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fifty engravings, four in tint and, although retained at $1 will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers.

A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced at great expense the beautiful oil painting by Seis, entitled "Dance Nature's School." The chromo is 11 x 13 inches, and is an exact fac simile, in size and appearance, of the original picture. No American chromo, which will at all compare with it, has yet been offered at retail for less than the price asked for THE ALDINE and it together. It will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.

TERMS FOR 1872

One Copy, one year, with Oil Chromo, $5. Five Copies, $20.

Any person sending 10 names and $40 will receive an extra copy gratis, making 11 copies for the money.

Any person wishing to work for a premium can have our premium circular on application. We give many beautiful and desirable articles offered by no other paper.

Any person wishing to set, permanently, as our agent, will apply, with reference, enclosing $1 for outfit.
