

mixture of harsh noises. Many a wise thought has failed to find a lodgement in the minds of those to whom it was spoken because of the strident or nasal tone which conveyed it; and on the contrary, many a commonplace has been made to appear beautiful and dignified because it was uttered by a modulated and harmonious voice. As with thoughts, so with the spirit within striving for utterance. No one has a right to deny his soul life the advantages of adequate expression. But if the voice is weak or wearisome, it will be hard to make those who hear believe that it can convey the more abundant life.—Homœopath Tidings.
