MISCELLANEOUS.

Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, of New York, has decided to publish a weekly paper to be called the Vigilant. The journal will be devoted to the interests of local reform as represented by the Parkhurst Society.

"My Optician," of 159 Yonge St., is an old established firm in Toronto, having made optics a speciality, examines eyes correctly, charging only for spectacles.

Word has been sent to the Courts of Europe that the Shah of Persia intends to visit Berlin, St. Petersburg, Paris and Vienna next spring.
He will start on his journey in May or June, and will remain in Europe several months.

The Princess Louise (Marchioness of Lorne) and Princess Beatrice have tried "wheeling." A couple of tricycles are kept at Balmoral for their use, and though they have never been outside the grounds of the palace, both Princesses frequently ride in the park.

Not Crude Material.

Scott's Emulsion is Cod Liver Oil perfected and is prepared upon the principle of its digestion and assimilation in the human system; hence it is given without disturbing the stomach.

Nice is going to create a new fete for next year, which will be a reproduction of one given at Dijon in 1400. It will revive the scene and the age by the aid of dresses and allegorical cars. An international sporting exhibition follows, to be succeeded by the races.

EXCELS ALL OTHERS.

DEAR SIRS,—Your Burdock Blood Bitters excels all other medicines that I ever used. I took it for biliousness and it has cured me altogether.

WM. WRIGHT, Wallaceburg, Ont.

The Princess of Wales has been studying art rather seriously at Copenhagen having taken lessons from both an English and a Dutch painter. Her two daughters take great pride in decorating their own rooms, and own a collection of bibelots from all parts of the world.

HACKING COUGH CURED.

GENTLEMEN,—My little boy had a severe hacking cough, and could not sleep at night.
I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for him and he was cured at once.

MRS. J. HACKETT, Lidwood, Ont.

Says Frances Willard: "I once asked Thomas A. Edison if he were a total abstainer, and when he told me that he was I said, 'May I inquire whether it was home influence that made you so?' and he replied, 'No, I think it was because I always felt that I had better use for my head.'"

A POSTMASTER'S OPINION.

"I have great pleasure in certifying to the usefulness of Hagyard's Yellow Oil," writes D.
Kavanagh, postmaster of Umfraville, Ont., "having used it for soreness of the throat, burns, colds, etc., I find nothing equal to it."

I have already spoken of aluminium as being superior to magnesium for flash light photography. Mr. T. Bolas, a well-known English photographic chemist, warmly recommends it, and gives as its chief advantages its higher actinic and its freedom from objectionable odors on ignition.—New York Herald.

The Catholic Times presents some figures of interest indicating the extent to which temperance sentiment has permeated some important religious denominations. Among the Congregationalists, 2,100 ministers in England and Wales (out of a total of 2,725) are known to be total abstainers, and 370 out of 399 students in the evangelical college. In Ireland there are no exceptions, and in Scotland 95 per cent. are registered as abstainers. In the Evangelical Union of Scotland, as with the Primitive Methodists of England, all the ministers are abstainers. Out of 1,758 accredited Baptist ministers in the United Kingdom, no fewer than 1,424 returned themselves as total abstainers, also 225 students out of 232 in the theological colleges.
