This repayment is made free of cost to the creditor Office, by means of either a money order, a cheque or a draft payable at sight in the capital or a commercial centre in the creditor country, or in coin current in that country. the period of three months, the sum due to the despatching Office bears interest, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, counting from the day of expiry of the said

2. The Office of origin may only claim repayment from the Office responsible within a period of two years counting from the date of notification of the loss, or, if the case arises, from the date of expiry of the period prescribed by Article

3. The Office whose responsibility is duly proved and which has at first declined to pay the compensation must bear all additional charges resulting from the unwarranted delay in payment.

4. Administrations may come to an agreement to liquidate periodically the compensation which they have paid to the senders and which they have agreed to be justified.

CHAPTER III

Cash on Delivery Packets

ARTICLE 61

Charges and Conditions. Settlement

1. Registered correspondence marked with trade charges to be collected of very may be exchanged between delivery may be exchanged between countries of which the Administrations agree to provide this service.

In the absence of any contrary arrangement the amount of the trade charge is expressed in the money of the country in which the packet originated.

The maximum trade charge is equal to the maximum amount fixed for Packets marked with trade charges are subject to the same regulations and as registered articles. money orders addressed to the country in which the article originated.

rates as registered articles.

The sender pays, in addition, a fixed charge which must not exceed the imes per packet and a proportional of centimes per packet and a proportional charge not exceeding ½ per cent of the amount of the trade charge Each Administration may adopt, for the collection of the proportional ge, the scale which best suits its service charge, the scale which best suits its service.

2. The amount collected from the addressee is transmitted to the sender by means of a trade charge money order, which is issued free of commission.

3. Administrations may agree upon another method of liquidating the state. They may, for example, undertaken collected. They may, for example, undertake to pay them into a postal cheque account in the country of destination of the real

In that case, in the absence of arrangement to the contrary, the amount of trade charge must be indicated in the money of the the trade charge must be indicated in the money of the country of destination.

A fixed charge not exceeding 25 centimes is collected from the country of destination. A fixed charge must be indicated in the money of the country of destination to the charges for a registered article. The Office of the sender, in addition to the charges for a registered article. to the charges for a registered article. The Office of destination pays into postal cheque account, by means of an inland transfer not the control of the charges from the sender, in addition pays into the postal cheque account, by means of an inland transfer not the charges from the control of the charges from the sender, in addition pays into the charges from the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from the charges from the sender, in addition pays in the charges from t postal cheque account, by means of an inland transfer note, the amount collected from the addressee, after deduction of a fixed charge and the addressee. from the addressee, after deduction of a fixed charge not exceeding 25 centimes and the ordinary charge for payments applicable in it.

ARTICLE 62

The sender of a registered article marked with a trade charge can depland of the partial cancellation of the amount of the trade charge can the total or partial cancellation of the amount of the trade charge.