

- Career planning courses for women.
- Counselling offered to individuals on self-assertiveness, career planning and job search techniques.
- Secondment of women looking for new career opportunities,
- Inventory of employees, including target group members, looking for career change circulated monthly to managers,
- Direct interventions to improve employment situation of employees including target group members.

More efforts will be made to provide information on Employment Equity in management orientation courses and Heads of Mission briefings.

---