

The Canadian Government is pleased to record to you the receipt of your letter of the 15th of June 1944 concerning the proposed exchange of consular officers between the two countries.

With the safeguarding of our national interests in mind, the Government has decided to accept the proposal for the exchange of consular officers on the following basis:

1. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say one officer for each country.

2. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

3. The exchange of consular officers will be
effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

4. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

5. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

6. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

7. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

8. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

9. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say
one officer for each country.

10. The exchange of consular officers will be effected on the basis of parity, that is to say one officer for each country.