

LIST OF APPENDICES—SESSION 1932

- No. 1.—Special Committee appointed to enquire into certain charges and allegations made by the Honourable George N. Gordon, K.C., as reported in The Globe newspaper of Toronto, reflecting upon the Right Honourable R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada: The Committee with its Second Report also presented a copy of its proceedings and the evidence taken, together with the exhibits that were filed in the course of the investigation. Not printed. See Journals at pages 157-158.
- No. 2.—Special Committee on Radio Broadcasting: Reports its investigation upon the most satisfactory agency for carrying out a scheme of radio broadcasting for Canada, so designed as to ensure from Canadian sources as complete and satisfactory a service as the present development of radio science will permit. The Committee in its Second and Final Report makes five specific recommendations. It further recommends that the Commission to be appointed be vested with the necessary powers to carry on the business of broadcasting in the Dominion of Canada; such powers to extend to matters which are set forth in the report. The Committee with its final report also presented a copy of its proceedings and the evidence taken, for the information of the House. Not printed. See Journals at pages 414-416, 429, also at pages 417-418 for Correspondence from the Canadian Legation at Washington, relating thereto.
- No. 3.—Special Committee on Civil Service and the Civil Service Act: Reports its enquiry upon the appointments to, and the control and the direction of, the Civil Service of Canada, and, generally, the administration and operation of the Civil Service Act, with instructions concerning the repeal or amendment of any of the provisions of said Act or the substitution therefor or addition thereto of other provisions. The Committee in its Second Report makes ten specific recommendations affecting the present provisions of the Act; recommendations affecting certain Regulations under the Act; recommendation that there be added to the Committees of this House a Select Special Committee on Civil Service matters, such to consist of seven members; recommendation that the present Civil Service Commissioners be retired with a gratuity; recommendation that a Committee be appointed at an early date to consider certain provisions of the Superannuation Act; recommendations affecting the Organization Branch, the Secretary of the Commission, also respecting certain positions on the House of Commons staff that can best be filled from sessional employees; recommendation to facilitate the adjustment of complaints of a Civil servant, also to obviate unnecessary delays in obtaining appointments and promotions; recommendation that all papers, documents, et cetera placed on the files of the Commission be consecutively numbered; and also, a recommendation that Order-in-Council P.C. 1053 of 1922, as amended by P.C. 17/1751 of 1929, be further amended respecting Postmasters.
