

would both be honoured, - if you will, you won't have to come up, as I will get - Mrs Greene to stand for you. Lady Byron is going to be the God-mother, and as the little girl is to be of the Church of England, I am sure you both will be able to guide her. On account of my present - job, we are going to have the christening very quietly carried out, as you can
