

are getting for the same work, with an ordinary Public School education, while the wife of an officer killed in action, with a University education, is given $ 50.

I know that you understand General Currie, and I also heard through intermediary that you wrote Dr. Roche a wonderful letter, and that I should not trouble you again, and yet that request of you to write you again, still gives me hopes that something extraordinary can be done, that perhaps you know of another way out, that my willingness to work very hard, to deserve all you are doing for me, may be rewarded.

Will you answer my letter again General Currie, when you have a few moments to spare.

Yours faithfully,
Myrella E. Harris

To General
Sir Arthur Currie
