The Treasurer, the Secretary, the Auditors, and other necessary Officers of the Society, shall be appointed by the Central Board. These appointments shall not be for any specified period, but may be cancelled at the pleasure of the Central Board.

ARTICLE IV.

Of Meetings of the Society.

The Society shall meet at Quebec on the morning of the fourth Wednesday in January of each year, for the reception of the Annual Report, the Report of the Clergy Trust Committee and the accounts of the Treasurer for the previous year ending 31st December; for the election of the Vice-Presidents, and Central Board, and the Clergy Trust Committee, and for general business: whereof not less than fifteen days notice shall be given by the Secretary, in at least one of the leading newspapers of Quebec, and elsewhere, as may seem to him expedient. A special meeting of the Society may be called at any time by the President, or in his absence from the Diocese, or in the event of a vacancy in the See, by two of the Vice-Presidents, and ten other members of the Society, by a written order to the Secretary, who shall notify the same in the manner hereinbefore provided in respect of the annual meetings. The time for holding the public celebration of the Society's anniversary, shall be decided by the Central Board at the December meeting.

ARTICLE V.

Of the Corporation.

All members of the Church of England, subscribing ten shillings per annum, shall be capable of being elected members of the Corporation. But no person shall enjoy any of the privileges of membership, whose subscription is more than one year in arrear. The annual subscriptions shall be considered due on the first day of January in each year.

Members of the Church of England giving a contribution in one sum of twelve pounds ten shillings, shall be eligible as life members.

Contributors may direct their contributions or any portion of them, to be applied under the direction of the Central Board, to any one of the five objects specified in the constitution of the Society.

No person elected a member of the Corporation shall be entitled to vote for three months after such election.
