PRESIDENT PLEADS FOR U.S. NEUTRALITY

Wilson Tells Newspaper Men U.S. Has Great Distinction Awaiting Her.

NOT TO JUDGE OTHERS

Think of America First, to Be Fit to Be Europe's Friend.

NEW YORK, April 20.—President Wilson today gave a definite and clear statement of the neutrality which is guiding his administration during the hour of annual luncheon of the Associated Press for what is regarded as a statement of greatest importance to the American people. As the only great nation not engaged in the war or suffering under the immediate influence of the war, Mr. Wilson declared that a great distinction awaited the United States when the hour of readjustment should come, provided that this nation should prove to the world its self-control and self-mastery. The past had been difficult, he pointed out, but the future would be more difficult.

Not to Sit in Judgment.

The United States, the president said, never would attempt to sit in judgment upon another nation. No nation was fit to do that, he added. But America, free from hampering ambitions as a world power, free of all lust for territory, calm, cool and without self-interest, must be appealed to to assist in the reconstructing processes of peace.

The neutrality of the United States, Mr. Wilson said, had a higher basis than a petty desire to keep out of trouble.

"There is something as much greater to do than fight," he said. "Let us think of America before we think of Europe, in order that America may be fit to be Europe's friend when the day of tested friendship comes. The test of friendship is not sympathy with one side or the other, but getting ready to help both sides when the struggle is over."

Moderate Times Ahead.

The president said in part: "I take the Associated Press very seriously. I know the enormous part that you play in the affairs, not only of this country, but of the world. The times behind us have been difficult enough; the times before us we think will be more difficult, because whatever may be said about the present condition of the world's affairs, it is clear that they are drawing rapidly to a climax, and at the climax the day of tested friendship comes. The test of friendship is not sympathy with one side or the other, but getting ready to help both sides when the struggle is over."

WOULD NOT HANG A DOG ON THAT

Judge Denton's Opinion of Budway's Evidence at Fire Inquiry.

ON THEIR DEFENCE

Firemen Charged Deny Accusations and One Saw Impression of Gun.

"I would not hang a dog on Budway's remark," said Judge Denton. This remark was offered at the close of a resumed session of the fire department enquiry yesterday, in the specific charges against several firemen last Tuesday, during a session of the investigation. He stated that he had drunk with firemen from a number of the Toronto firehalls, and named the men, also, that a lieutenant at Yonge street firehall had been mixed up in a handbook deal.

I. S. Fairly of the city legal department, who is conducting the examination for the city, stated, after he had examined the firemen, that he thought a man who would give evidence such as Budway had given, should not be free. Also, that Budway had made an appointment to meet Detective Murray and Acting Fire Chief Smith to go to several firehalls and identify the men with whom he had had a drink, but whose names he did not know, but had not kept it.

Ordered Him Away.

Lieut. Waldren of Yonge street firehall was called by Mr. Fairly to answer the charges brought against him.

Q.—Did you ever transmit bets to an outside party?

A.—Budway stated that you had done so; what do you say to that?

A.—Budway came to the hall one time and I ordered him away. That was the only time I ever spoke to him.

Q.—Do you still deny that you ever ran a handbook?

A.—Yes, sir; I told you that the only bet I made was two years ago, and I made them myself.

Q.—Do you know Marsh?

A.—No, sir; never knew him in my life.

Q.—Do you know O'Brien, in Cobalt?

A.—No, I don't know anyone in Cobalt.

These two men Budway said were in the handbook deal with Waldren.

Q.—Have you any idea why such specific charges should be brought against you?

A.—No; it is complete mystery to me.

Ben Marsh Called.

Ben Marsh was then called.

Q.—You are employed with the Consumers' Gas Co.?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you know Lieut. Waldren?

A.—No, sir; I do not know anyone in the fire department.

Fireman Purchase of Yonge street firehall was called next.

Q.—Did you at any time drink at Somerset Hotel?

A.—Yes; some years ago.

Q.—Do you remember the time Budway came to the firehall and offered you a drink?

A.—Yes. He came to the hall under the influence of liquor; in fact, he was very drunk. He asked me to take a drink, but I told him I did not want any.

Q.—Did you see anyone else take a drink from him?

A.—No; I was alone with him. This was two years ago at least.

McCurry of Yonge street, said he

HIS HEALTH IN A TERRIBLE STATE

"Fruit-a-tives" Healed His Kidneys and Cured Him.

"Hagersville, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1912. "About two years ago I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run-down in condition. I felt the need of some good remedy, and having seen 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised I decided to try them. The effect I found more than satisfactory. Their action was mild and the result all that could be expected. "My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes, and I remained my old-time vitality. Today I am enjoying the best health I have ever had."

"B. A. KELLY."

"Fruit-a-tives" is the greatest kidney remedy in the world. It acts on the bowels and skin as well as on the kidneys and thereby soothes and cures any kidney soreness.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c or will be sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

had never seen Budway at the firehall, but had seen him when he took tickets at the Mutual Rink.

John McMillen of Yonge street said he knew Budway by sight, but had been warned by friends to keep away from him, as he was a bad character.

Q.—Did you drink with him?

A.—No, not at any time.

Q.—Did you ever drink in the Somerset Hotel?

A.—Yes, last December.

Fireman Cross of Lombard was then questioned.

Q.—Do you know Budway?

A.—Yes; I worked in Eaton's with him.

Impression of Gun.

Q.—Did you ever drink with him?

A.—No, never. He came to the firehall last Tuesday. He told me that a subpoena had been served on him at his house, but that it had not been served personally on him. He was very much under the influence of a revolver thru his pocket, and said: "That is a 38." It was about 11 o'clock in the morning.

Q.—Did you ever see any crap games at the firehall?

A.—No, sir.

Fireman Bird of Keele street was next examined.

Q.—Did you ever drink with Budway?

A.—No, sir; I knew him at Eaton's when I worked there.

Q.—Do you remember the time you took liquor in a vegetable wagon?

A.—No, sir; I never took a drink in my life.

Worked at Eaton's With Him.

Harry Tuddy, fireman at Yonge street, testified that he had worked at Eaton's with Budway, and that he had never had a drink with him. He said that he had met Budway at Yonge street firehall, and he was so drunk that he could hardly stand up.

Q.—Do you remember sending Budway to Lee's to get a bottle of liquor?

A.—No, I never did. I never used Budway as a friend. I have not recognized him for six years. I have a good mind to bring a charge against him of perjury.

Judge Denton then asked Budway what he had to say for himself. Budway said that he had told the truth and that he could not say anything further.

Judge Denton then told Mr. Fairly that if he expected him to take Budway's evidence seriously he would be very much mistaken.

Mr. Fairly replied that he did not want to leave the impression that he was supporting the evidence of Budway, and that he thought his testimony absolutely worthless. Any man who would give testimony of that kind should not be allowed his freedom, he concluded.

The investigation was then closed. But Judge Denton said he would open it if the occasion arose.

SOLDIER'S ESTATE WILL BE DIVIDED

Sister of John Matheson Made Application for Administration.

MANY WILLS PROBATED

Twelve Thousand Dollars Was Left by Late Orangeville Resident.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matheson, mother of John Matheson, and five sisters and three brothers will share equally in his estate. The testator was a private in the second contingent, who at the time of his death on March 18, had $297.

Mrs. Charlotte Crosswell and Walter will of Ralph Crosswell, formerly of Orangeville, who died April 2. The estate is valued at $12,230. Under the will the widow receives one-third of the estate absolutely and the net income of this part of the estate is to be divided among the four children.

Under the will, dated Sept. 26, 1910, William John Sheridan, who died April 1, left everything to his wife, Mary Sheridan. The estate consists of $700 in household goods, cash $461, $500 life insurance and 717 East Gerrard street, valued at $3000.

In any organization so large as that of the C.P.R. where under normal conditions over 100,000 employees are on the payroll, one great problem is of keeping the employees, so to speak, dynamic. The C.P.R. is a living organization and not a mere machine. Zeal and ambition must be kept burning. Just as every soldier of Napoleon carried a field marshal's baton in his knapsack, so every employee of the C.P.R. must feel he is a possible president. One system introduced on the Western lines with this in mind has proved exceedingly efficient. Each superintendent or foreman or head of a department makes two reports a year on his staff. Bright men are thus earmarked for special promotion. If any man is criticized the report is shown to him and initiated by him before it goes to Winnipeg. He gets a square deal, and if he has any life in him he mends his ways so that no such criticism can be made twice. The men there are independent scouts, looking for the bright men, the man cool in an emergency, the man who is a maniac, the stenographer who can run the office when the chief is absent. These scouts are searching for merit only, not for fault.

Over the whole system of the Canadian Pacific ideas and suggestions made by employees are not only welcomed, but lead to promotion. They go to the Record Office, where a statement of the employee's career is attached to the suggestion before it is considered by a committee. If the idea is adopted the record of the employee's career is then before the eyes of the powers that be, and recognition is sure to follow. The needle in the haystack is strong enough to find with a magnet, and there are a dozen magnets looking out for merit among the 100,000 employees of the C.P.R.

NEERLICH TREASON TRIAL ADJOURNED

Counsel Must Renew Application to Have Case Traversed in Two Weeks.

Mr. Justice Clute yesterday refused the application made by W. G. Mason to have the charge of high treason against Emil Nerlich traversed to the fall session court. His lordship ordered that the case be spoken of again in two weeks.

Mr. Mason argued that the treason trial should not be taken until the court of appeal had disposed of the reserved case granted by Sir William Mulock, when Mr. Nerlich was found guilty of conspiring to commit an indictable offence.

W. C. Mikel thought the trial should be unopposed during the present sitting of the court, but would not oppose the application if the decision of the court of appeal would have any bearing on the treason charge.

CANADIAN GUNNERS SHOOT ACCURATELY

Col. Currie, M.P., Says Firing at Neuve Chapelle Sounded Like Niagara.

Special to The Toronto World.

OTTAWA, April 20.—A letter from Col. John A. Currie, M.P., received here today, contains some thrilling references to the terrific fighting along the western front. He wrote on April 1, when the Canadians were resting a few miles back from the firing line. The fight at Neuve Chapelle was very hot. The Canadians were not in the thick of it, "but the rifle and artillery fire sounded like Niagara." The Canadian artillery were doing good shooting, and he adds that the Canadian troops would as soon trust their own artillery to shoot over their heads as some of the British batteries. Even back from the trenches, as they went to sleep at night, they could hear the patter of German bullets against the walls of the buildings. At the time of writing Col. Currie was the only Canadian M.P. in the trenches. His own regiment, the 48th Highlanders of Toronto, had only lost two killed and a number of wounded, but some of the British regiments during the same period lost from 50 to 80 killed.

ST. KITTS' INDUSTRIES MUST PAY FULL TAX

S. CATHERINE, April 20.—Two St. Catharines industries which last year failed to employ a sufficient number of hands, have forfeited their taxation exemption under an agreement with the city and must this year pay taxes on their complete assessment.

The St. Catharines rate of taxation will be 25 mills. 1 3/4 mills above last year. This covers the war tax, soldiers' insurance and Red Cross grants. Merritt's rate will be 27 mills.
