WINSTON-SALEM.

ORANGEVILLE, Sept. 15.—Wingham has protested the semi-final intermediate game played here last Friday with the Dufferin, when the latter won by three goals on the ground that Chapman of Dufferin played the scheduled game here with Owen Sound July 23. The Dufferin juniors were here to see the game, and an exhibition game was promptly arranged between the Dufferin juniors and Fergus juniors at 1:30, when three periods were played. Nothing turned on the exhibition, and as the game was not regularly advertised, there were few spectators. Now Wingham claims Dufferin violated the rules in playing Chapman, a member of the Dufferin, on Friday. The protest seems highly technical, unimportant and unimportant. It felt here that to allow this eleven-hour protest with Weston are well under way, would be a distinct reversal to the prestige of the association.

FOR BOWMAN TROPHY.

CARGILL, Ont., Sept. 15.—Teeswater bowlers played Cargill here last night for the Bowman Trophy, which was won by Teeswater, on Owen Sound on Sept. 11. The home rink won by one shot. Score: Teeswater, 107; Cargill, 104. Montgomery, Ferguson, MacKay, sk. ... Zimmerman, sk. ... Arthur and Walkerton play next.
