

not become perpetual grumblers nor kickers ; let us not run to the press with questionable letters over fictitious signatures : let us be men and peacefully accept the inevitable ; await our recompense in Heaven, or start a grand Hygera for greener fields and pastures new.

