s. One of

the woman's brother's back was broken, and he heard the crying, and he said that it just looked like his sister crying; that he hear it. And the three boys went back again. And those three boys told his father and mother that it just looked like his sister was crying in the woods; and this man and woman came down the river to see the woman; and that father tried to ask that man where his wife go to. And that man said that woman had gone to the woods to pick some berries; that she was on the tree. And the man and woman tried to go back up the river again; and those three boys tried to go fishing up the river again, and they saw his sister in the high tree, and they heard that woman say: "Oh, that is my brother that was fishing in the river!" And those three boys went back and tried to tell his father and mother that it was his sister in the high tree.

And the man and woman went in the woods and tell all the animals—bear, wolf, fox, whale, blue-jay—every animal. And those animals go with that man and woman to take that woman that was in that tree away from that tree.

And the whale tried to stand up and to take that woman that was in that tree, and he stand just a few minutes and fall down.

And the sea-lion tried to go and fetch that woman that was in the tree. He stand up and he fall down.

And the blue-jay scolded the whale because he couldn't fetch the woman. And the whale tried to scold the blue-jay, and the whale told the blue-jay to go on the high tree and take the woman away from the tree himself. And the blue-jay tried to go and take the woman away from the tree. And the jay tried, and then he will fall down. And the blue-jay fall down. Hurts him—dead! And the bear tried to doctor him, and he get well now. And as soon as he get well, he tried to scold again at the whale. And the whale scolded the bear, because he doctor the blue-jay. He didn't want him to get well, because he scold too much to everybody. And the whale told the bear, "Why didn't he let him to dead?" because nobody like him.

And this woman—one of her brothers had his back broken—everybody scold him, because he never think he was going to fetch his sister. And that boy tried to go up in the high tree and fetch his sister, and the boy was singing, and the people was singing, and the animals was singing, and everybody was singing. The blue-jay scolded the whale, because he never helped the animals to sing!

And the boy brought his sister away from the tree and put her on his back and all the animals felt joyful now. And the blue-jay scolded, scolded. He never get joyful with the other animals. And the blue-jay was getting mad to the whale. And all of them were going home now. And that husband want his wife again. And the animals didn't want him to take his wife again. And the blue-jay scolded that husband man, because he don't want that woman to have that man now. And the woman went home with her father and mother.
