

meeting for
 ration of the
 vide an out-
 cient body of
 least, will be ter of great nportance at n in a large Lordship to present mo-
 uld take out
 f learning, of
 y to go forth
 nt that loving
 ristian people
 d supply the
 of the special
 e meeting will
 and that they
 at the people
 et those who yor, I wish to
 the meeting.
 ngaged in the moment when
 of those who s Lordship, at
 has received
 ansion House,
 I feel that this
 Lord Mayor.
 efully acknow-
 l now ask the
 of the resolu-
 an, after the al pleasure in conveying to you the thanks of the whole meeting. (Loud applause.)

The LORD MAYOR :—I feel extremely grateful to the meeting for the very kind way in which they have been pleased to receive my name. In presiding here to-day, I feel that I have done no more than my duty. That duty has been an exceedingly pleasing one, because I had reason to believe that a noble lady to whom we are all so much indebted, not only on this occasion but on many others, would be gratified to know that the meeting should be held within the walls of the Mansion House. I am delighted to think that I had the opportunity of granting the requisition, and I am more than repaid by your kind expressions of gratitude. (Applause.)

The BISHOP of LONDON then pronounced the Benediction, and the meeting separated.

Communications may be addressed to the REV. JOHN GARRETT, Vicar of St. Paul, near Penzance, Commissary to the Bishop of Columbia; and G. P. ARDEN, Esq., Halsead, Essex, Secretaries to the Columbia Mission, 3, Waterloo Place, S. W., London.

Contributions may be paid to the account of the COLUMBIA MISSION, at MESSRS. COUTTS & Co., 59, Strand; COX & Co., Craig's Court, Charing Cross; SMITH, PAYNE, & SMITHS, 1, Lombard Street; SIR JOHN W. LUBBOCK, BART., FOSTER & Co., Mansion House Street, City; 79, Pall Mall; and at MESSRS. D. LA TOUCHE & Co., Castle Street, Dublin.