

Cheap Series—continued.

Wuthering Heights and Agnes Grey.

By Ellis and Acton Bell.

With Memoir by CURRER BELL.

Price 2s. 6d. cloth.

"There are passages in this book of 'Wuthering Heights' of which any novelist, past or present, might be proud. It has been said of Shakespeare that he drew cases which the physician might study; Ellis Bell has done no less."—Palladium.

"There is, at all events, keeping in the book: the groups of figures and the scenery are in harmony with each other. There is a touch of Salvatore Rosa in all."—Atlas.

A Lost Love.

By Ashford Owen.

Price 2s. cloth.

"'A Lost Love' is a story full of grace and genius. No outline of the story would give any idea of its beauty."—Athenæum.

"A tale at once moving and winning, natural and romantic, and certain to raise all the finer sympathies of the reader's nature."—Press.

Deerbrook.

By Harriet Martineau.

Price 2s. 6d. cloth.

"This popular fiction presents a true and animated picture of country life among the upper middle classes of English residents, and is remarkable for its interest, arising from the influence of various characters upon each other, and the effect of ordinary circumstances upon them. The descriptions of rural scenery, and the daily pursuits in village hours, are among the most charming of the author's writings; but the way in which exciting incidents gradually arise out of the most ordinary phases of life, and the skill with which natural and every-day characters are brought out in dramatic situations, attest the power of the author's genius."

Tales of the Colonies.

By Charles Rowcroft.

Price 2s. 6d. cloth.

"'Tales of the Colonies' is an able and interesting book. The author has the first great requisite in fiction—a knowledge of the life he undertakes to describe; and his matter is solid and real."—Spectator.

"It combines the fidelity of truth with the spirit of a romance, and has altogether much of De Foe in its character and composition."—Literary Gazette.

Romantic Tales

(Including "Avillion")

By the Author of "John Halifax, Gentleman."

A New Edition. Price 2s. 6d. cloth.

"'Avillion' is a beautiful and fanciful story, and the readable very agreeable reading. There is not one of them unquickened by true feeling, exquisite taste, and a pure and vivid imagination."—Examiner.

"In a nice knowledge of the refinements of the female heart, and in a happy power of depicting emotion, the authoress is excelled by very few story tellers of the day."—Globe.

Domestic Stories.

By the Author of "John Halifax, Gentleman."

Price 2s. 6d. cloth.

"In a nice knowledge of the refinements of the female heart and in a happy power of depicting emotion, the authoress is excelled by very few story-tellers of the day."—Globe.

"There is not one of them unquickened by true feeling, exquisite taste, and a pure and vivid imagination."—Examiner.

After Dark.

By Wilkie Collins.

Price 2s. 6d. cloth.

"Mr. Wilkie Collins stands in the foremost rank of our younger writers of fiction. He tells a story well and forcibly, his style is eloquent and picturesque; he has considerable powers of pathos; understands the art of construction; is never wearisome or wordy, and has a keen insight into character."—Daily News.

"'After Dark' abounds with genuine touches of nature."—British Quarterly.

Paul Ferroll.

Fourth Edition. Price 2s. cloth.

"We have seldom read so wonderful a romance. We can find no fault in it as a work of art. It leaves us in admiration, almost in awe, of the powers of its author."—New Quarterly.

"The art displayed in presenting Paul Ferroll throughout the story is beyond all praise."—Examiner.

School for Fathers.

By Talbot Gwynne.

Price 2s. cloth.

"'The School for Fathers' is one of the cleverest, most brilliant, genial, and instructive stories that we have read since the publication of 'Jane Eyre.'"—Eclectic Review.

"The pleasantest tale we have read for many a day. It is a story of the Tattler and Spectator days, and is very fitly associated with that time of good English literature by its manly feeling, direct, unaffected manner of writing, and wisely managed, well-turned narrative. The descriptions are excellent; some of the country painting is as fresh as a landscape by Alfred Constable, or an idyl by Tennyson."—Examiner.
