

CHAPTER IX.

Arrival at New Holland—Singular coincidence—Arrival at New Zealand—"War Dance"—Description of the Islands—Inhabitants—The New Zealanders and New Hollanders contrasted, 120

CHAPTER X.

General Remarks—Fijii Islands—Cannibalism—A Convict Exile—Death of a Shipmate—Encounter with the Natives—Visit at Muthwater—A Fatal Contest with the Natives, 133

CHAPTER XI.

The Punishment for the Murders—Funeral Services of the Murdered—Departure—Gardener's Island—Recollections of Home—Arrival at the Sandwich Islands—Honolulu—Common People, 159

CHAPTER XII.

Visit of a Native Chief—Sentence of death passed upon two Natives for the murder of a Female Chief—Departure—Arrival at Hawaii—Expedition—Visit to the Volcano—Mouna Roa, 178

CHAPTER XIII.

Ascent of the Mountain continued—The Lava—Fatigue and Exposure of the Journey—Descent into the Crater—The Basin—Severity of the Weather—Return to the Ship—Visit of the Chief, 194

CHAPTER XIV.

Visit of the Missionaries—Survey of the Harbor—Embarkation—Arrival at the Columbia River—Description—Arrival at Protection Island—Survey—Natives—Admiralty Inlet—Meteor—Observance of the "4th"—Accident, 207

CHAPTER XV.

General Remarks on Nasqually, &c.—Return to Columbia River—Point Dungeness—Indian Settlement—Natives—San Francisco—Inhabitants, 221

CHAPTER XVI.

Arrival at the Sandwich Islands—Incident at Oahu—Departure—A meditated attack of the Natives—Arrival at Singapore—Arrival at St. Helena—Description—Reflections upon Napoleon—Departure—Arrival at New York, 242

REMINISCENCES.—Wreck of the Peacock, 265
Lagoon or Disappointment Islands, 289

REFLECTIONS.—The Murders at Malolo, 313