

Improvement of Agriculture.

Published every Three Months, price Four Shillings,

THE

BRITISH FARMER'S (Quarterly) MAGAZINE,

DEVOTED EXCLUSIVELY TO

AGRICULTURAL AND RURAL AFFAIRS.

VOLUME THE FOURTH, FOR 1830.

Illustrated by Four fine Engravings of Celebrated Cattle.

Price 16s. boards, or neatly Half-bound 18s.

CONTENTS.—Mr. Shirreff on the Wheat Fly.—Mr. Berry's Suggestions to the Landed Proprietors and Tenantry of the Island of Anglesea.—On Sir H. Davy's Opinion on Fallowing Land.—Observations on Mr. Shirreff's Strictures on Dr. Fleming's Law of Vegetable Life.—Critical Remarks on Agricultural Writings. By J. Hayward, Esq.—Mr. Gray on the Corn Law of 1828, and on the real Importance of Agriculture.—Further Remarks on Mr. G. Sinclair's Analysis of the Grasses, and on his Replies. By William Aiton, Esq.—Observations on "An Observer." By Mr. Gray.—On the Present Distress on the Country. By Lewis Kennedy, Esq. (Author of "Tenancy of Land and Customs of Counties in Great Britain.")—Mr. Gray on the Causes and Cure of our Present Distress.—On the Lanarkshire Breed of Horses. By W. Aiton, Esq.—Mr. Berry on the Improved Breeds of Cattle.—On Sheep's Fescue Grass.—Mr. Hayward to the Editor.—Observer's Reply to Mr. Gray.—On Bullock Husbandry. By Thos. Herbert.—Reply to Mr. Hayward's "Critical Remarks on Agricultural Writings." By Mr. Aiton.—Mr. Gray on the Currency.—On the Anglesea Breed of Cattle.—On the Improvement of Waste Land. By Mr. Aiton.—On the Advantages of Shallow Sowing.—On the Wheat Fly. By Mr. S. Taylor.—Remarks on "the Advantages of Shallow Sowing."—Remarks on Mr. Taylor on the Wheat Fly. By Delta.—Mr. Berry on the Improved Breeds of Cattle, in Reply to Mr. Hayward.—Mr. Berry on the Anglesea Breed of Cattle.—On the Choice of a Farm.—Mr. Gray's Address to the Electors of Great Britain and Ireland.—On Tithes.—Inquiry into the Causes of Agricultural Distress. By W. Aiton, Esq.—Mr. Gray on Forged Notes, and Punishment for Forgery.—On Fixing Rents according to the Price of Corn.—On Sheep Husbandry. By T. Herbert.—Mr. Gray on the Connection between the Rates of Prices, and Wealth and Comforts of a Nation.—On Paring and Burning. By W. Aiton, Esq.—Remarks on the Observations of the late Mr. Cline, on the Breeding and Form of Domestic Animals.—The Statistics, or Political Economy of the Operatives of Spitalfields.—REVIEWS of New Publications relating to Agriculture and Rural Economy.—Quarterly Reports for England and Scotland.—Agricultural Society's Meetings of Manchester, Liverpool, Northampton, Smithfield, Highland, Stockton, &c.—Fairs.—Sporting Intelligences, &c. &c.

* * * The First Number of the FIFTH Volume, (or the Eighteenth of the entire Work,) illustrated by finely Engraved Portraits of "an AYRSHIRE COW," the Property of the Duke of Leeds, and Mr. S. Grantham's Prize South-down Wether, exhibited at the Smithfield Club Cattle Show of December, 1830, was published on FEBRUARY 1st, 1831.