HAMILTON, Oct. 9 .- (Special.)-Gor-

Cochrane, who is slated for a portfolio in the Borden cabinet. Mr. Wilson denied that any influence whatever had been brought to bear upon him in the matter, and stated that he had made the offer to Hon. Mr. Cochrane, simply out of personal regard for the minister of forests and mines in the Whitney government. Mr. Wilson's offer is made, of course, on the assumption that Mr. Cochrane is included in the Borden cabinet, and it cannot be known whether the offer will be accepted until the new federal cabinet is announced.

While it has been taken for granted that Mr. Cochrane would be allowed the seat by acclamation, it is doubtful if the Liberals would concur in that course and it is considered more than likely that if the proposed change is made, W. O. Sealey, the defeated Lip-eral candidate at the "last election, would again enter the field and contest
