PREFERENCE WITH BRITAIN. General Tariff of 15 Per Cent

Should Be Sufficient. Two important messages were given to the members of the Empire Club at the luncheon yesterday under the presidency of Prof. Clark. One was a plea for a more considerate attitude "I suppose," he continued, "that of every two men who go into politics one goes, not for what he can do for his fellow man, but for what he can get out of politics. Yes, I should say that four out of every five, perhaps uitable. He remonstrated and they assaulted him. With the assistance of P. C. Rowe, after a fight in which both officers used their clubs, the men were arrested. They gave their names as towards England as regards the tariff, Yesterday they were arraigned in the general sessions before Judge Winchester, charged with aggravated assault on an officer. The jury brought in a verdict of common assault, with a strong recommendation to mercy. They will be sentenced later on.

Officers used their clubs, the men were gle and contest, in the effort to get whether they have a high or a low tariff, or none at all."

These were the sentiments voiced by Archibald McGoun, K.C., professor in the faculty of law at McGill. Making allowance for incidental expenses, such as differences in the rate of interest on capital, a general tariff of 15 per cent, would be quite sufficient for this purpose.

Mrs. Isabella Rutherford, a widow, aged about 60, who lives at 169 Argylestrect, was the next to face the judge and jury. She is answering to the charge of stealing an umbrella, the property of Mrs. Harriet Allen. Mrs. Allent testified that while shopping in Eaton's she left her umbrella in a rack. When when returned for it it was missing. With the assistance of Detective Mackie, she found it in the possession of the accused.

Detective Black of the Eaton Company said he had regarded Mrs. Rutherford with suspicion for a number of weeks. She was in the habit of visiting in the store about once a week, but he never knew her to take anything before. She had no umbrella when she came into the store on the day she was arrested.
