IMMENSE CROWDS SEE ECCLESIASTICAL PARADE ASOUTH FORBADE HOST

Majority of Spectators Attracted Thru Curiosity, and Some Openly Hostile—Police Have a Busy Time.

ARCHBISHOP FORCED PREMIER'S DECISION

LONDON, Sept. 12.—A great procession of Catholic clergymen, which brought the Eucharistic Congress to an end, was held this afternoon amid scenes such as the English churchmen who planned it, had never anticipated. Cardinal Vanuttell, the Pope's legate, walked at the head of the procession wearing his scarlet robes and hat, but not carrying the Host. He was accompanied by a bodyguard of English peers, of whom the Duke of Norfolk was the most prominent, and a concourse of cardinals, archbishops and bishops, who were attired in unceremonial robes instead of vestments, which originally it had been proposed they should wear.

No such throngs of people have been seen in London since Victoria's funeral, if even then. The purpose of Archbishop Bourne, the head of the Westminster diocese, and his associates, who had arranged the program had been to have the Host carried through the streets in the rear of Westminster Cathedral, and the great body of Catholics who were unable to participate in any of the services within the cathedral should have an opportunity of joining the eucharistic observances and of seeing the high ecclesiastics present in London on this memorial occasion.

The route of the procession was laid thru the quiet streets adjacent to the cathedral and but for the unexpected partisan strife which a discussion of this ceremony brought on, it probably would have been solemnized quietly and in a reverent atmosphere. The great majority of those who attempted to witness the spectacle, however, apparently were attracted by curiosity and a small part were openly and demonstratively hostile.

The Catholic element cheered heartily while the procession passed by and shouted the route, but there was also heard considerable boisterousness.

Asquith Int. refused. The announcement that Premier Asquith had intervened in the matter and that as a consequence there had been some modifications of arrangements, was made last night at a mass meeting in Albert Hall, where the cause of great uproar. The meeting was exclusively for men and was attended by about 10,000.

As soon as Cardinal Vanuttell, the papal legate, who was accompanied by the usual brilliant array of cardinals and bishops, took the chair, Archbishop Bourne arose and said that he had a statement to make which would be a source of disappointment and pain. He deprecating Sunday's procession and advocating its abandonment. This announcement was greeted with groans and cries of "shame" by the assembly.

The Choice of North York Conservatives

Mr. Leonard, who has worked out this great success in Coniagas, is a graduate of the Royal Military College of Kingston. He did a lot of engineering work on the plant at Niagara Falls. He gives his experience and time ungrudgingly to the shareholders' interests, with one object, to get them all there in the mine at the lowest cost for working.

There is no large holding outside of Mr. Leonard, less than 100,000 out of the 800,000 shares. There has been very little rise in the price of the shares since the original issue. But now all sorts of inquiries are made for this stock and it must greatly appreciate in value.

So that here is another marvel of the Cobalt camp, little heard of, owned by Canadians and that has quietly produced at the last return, $1,221,883.37 and which only getting well under way. Cobalt grows on you as you see its vast realities, not to mention its enormous potentialities.

When the pictures show Bryan, speaking the candidate's voice will be heard from the phonographic record of the Labor Day address.

TEC. SCHOOL SITE WON'T PASS COUNCIL

Opinion Seems Unanimous That Board of Education Have Been Too Lib- eral in Matter.

The ambitious proposal to expend $600,000 on a new technical school on Borden-street, by the voting of $230,000 in addition to the $380,000 already authorized, promises to meet with a complete Waterloo when it comes before the city council this afternoon.

While the council has no power under the statute to reject absolutely any project to expend money on new school buildings which may be passed by the board of education, it can refer such question to a vote of the ratepayers, and there is very little doubt such a decision will be reached.

From the sentiments expressed to The World by aldermen last night, it is evident that an overwhelming vote will smother the extravagant scheme. Not a single alderman looked upon it favorably. As for the board of control, it would not be surprising to see a majority of the members vote with the rest of the city council.

The recommendation made is only a nominal one, and does not bind the controllers to support the expenditure.

Mayor Oliver and Controller Harrison are understood to be inclined to doubt the wisdom of the undertaking. Controller Spence thinks $600,000 might not be too much to devote to an up-to-date school, but is still open to conviction. He thinks that as pupils will come from outside, the Ontario Government should contribute.

Here are a few aldermanic opinions which should be interesting reading for some school trustees:

ALD. SAUNDERSON: This is going too fast. The citizens wouldn't stand for such expenditure. All the aldermen I have spoken to think as I do. Trustee Brown's stand seems to be the reasonable one.

ALD. J. J. GRAHAM: I am in favor

GRAHAM WON'T CONSENT TO QUEBEC BRIDGE DEAL

Parent Said to Have Arranged for the Rebuilding of the Structure.

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—It is understood here that Hon. Geo. Graham, minister of railways and canals, has just vetoed a new plan of reorganization entered into between Hon. S. N. Parent and the Phoenix Bridge Co. for the reconstruction of the Quebec bridge.

It was generally supposed that the three government experts named a short time since would have all to say in this connection, but this it appears is not the case.

The report has it that President Parent of the bridge company entered into a deal with the Pennsylvania Co. to rebuild the bridge on new lines, that all the plans were made and accepted by the company, and that the three government experts were to be used simply as consulting engineers. Here, however, the trouble came by Hon. Mr. Graham refusing to agree to any such arrangement as proposed by President Parent and his company and accepted by the Phoenix Construction Co.

ANOTHER GUESS.

October 18 or 19 Now Said to Be Likely Date.

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—It is asserted that the interests which have been urging the government to hold the elections during the last week of October rather than the first week of November, have won out, and that the date is almost certain to be Wednesday, Oct. 18, or the following day.

Unless a definite announcement as to the date of dissolution is forthcoming on Monday, it would appear that it will be made during the absence of the premier from the capital, which would be rather unusual.

Sir Wilfrid's itinerary will keep him away from Ottawa till the end of September, and the announcement is certain to be made before then.

Nobody Killed—Some Enemy Opened a Switch.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Sept. 12.—Thirty-four persons were injured to-day in the wreck of train No. 4, Chicago to New York express on the Erie Railroad at Geneva, Pa.

Railroad officials believe it was caused by an enemy who opened a switch. All of the injured were brought to this city and 18 still remain at the hospital.

IS MURPHY FOR THE CABINET?

May Be Taken in Place of Secretary of State, Who Will Retire if Son Is Honored.

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Persistent rumors of cabinet changes once more fill the air.

It is positively asserted in some quarters that the retirement of Hon. R. W. Scott, secretary of state, will take place in the near future and that his place will be taken by Charles Murphy, K.C., the well known Ottawa lawyer, who represented the National Transcontinental Railway Commissioners before the parliamentary committee which enquired into the Hodgson charges. Mr. Murphy may come into the cabinet first as minister without portfolio with the understanding that he will become a full-fledged cabinet minister after the general election if the government is returned to power.

This arrangement, it is thought, would appease the Irish Catholics, who have long been dissatisfied because their interests are not more energetically represented at the cabinet councils.

An effort will probably be made to get Mr. McLaurin, the Liberal candidate in Russell County, to step aside for Mr. Murphy, altho when spoken to to-day Mr. McLaurin said he had not heard anything about it.

Mr. Murphy had a long talk with Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Saturday. It is understood that the matter was fully discussed, but that plans were not definitely settled.

The necessity of doing something to meet the wishes of the Irish Catholics of the country before the election, was fully recognized, Hon. R. W. Scott, it is said, would be willing to retire if his son, D'Arcy Scott, mayor of Ottawa, is appointed to one of the vacancies on the railway commission.

BILL SNOW GETS AWAY FROM "CENTRAL"

Brother of Bob Squeezes Thru Barred Window and Suc- ceeds in Eluding Bel- lated Pursuers.

Forcing his way thru the 6 1/2 inch space between the sill and the first bar on a window in the Central Prison on Sunday afternoon, William Snow got clear away. He is a brother of the notorious young Robert Snow who was one of the seven making the getaway from the Toronto jail some time ago.

The escape is supposed to have taken place about 3.30 in the afternoon; he was not missed till 4, and an additional quarter of an hour was lost trying to locate him in one of the cells, so that he had a good three-quarters of an hour start before Deputy Warden Logan noticed the two planks standing against the twenty foot wall on the west side, showing how Snow had gained his freedom from duress. The city police were notified at once, and guards started immediately to search the surrounding lands.

It was expected that he would make for his father's home on Farley-avenue, nearly opposite No. 3 police station at East-end-street, and he is reported to have been seen there by a citizen, wearing a short coat over the regulation blue and brown striped card of the institution, a peaked cap, and a pair of rubbers. He was also seen in the "Ward." Since Bob Snow's capture a week ago the Snows have moved from Farley-avenue.

How It Was Done.

On Sundays no guards patrol the walls, rifle in hand, to watch for whippersnappers such as Snow, but the outer doors are locked up. Snow, along with all the other prisoners in the north end of the prison, was attending divine service in the chapel, which is situated at the top of the central or main building. Snow, who was near the back of the chapel, whispered to the guard at the door that he wanted to go down to his cell for a minute, and the guard, knowing that all the doors were securely locked and barred, gave him the permission without attending him, or sending any one along with him. There was no one else beside himself in that wing of the prison when he left the chapel.

Crossing the swing bridge separating the cell galleries from the main building, Snow made his way to the bottom floor. Convenient to his purpose he noticed beneath a window, a little six feet from the floor, a wash tub which had been used to wash up some of the prison vessels. He climbed the tub, and thus was able to get a good purchase on the solid bars, pulling himself up and outward and got thru.

It took him the work of a minute for him to place a couple of 18 foot planks against the wall—one reaching to within a couple of feet from the top at a steep incline, and the other at a long angle to make it easy to mount the second—mount them to the top, and turn from there to the prison land between these.

Not Beautiful Snow.

Three months ago, when he aided his brother in the robbery at Peter Ellis' sporting goods place at Agnes and Yonge-streets. The young brother, Bob, took all the blame for the deed, however. The pair secured entrance thru a barred fanlight.

The crime for which William Snow was sentenced to 23 months was for robbery in King Bros' jewelry store on West Queen-street, opposite Chestnut-street, when he had as his accomplices Reuben Costello and James Walker. The three got away with considerable booty, escaping to Niagara Falls, N.Y. The police there heard that the men were trying to get rid of a lot of jewelry, and started in to find them. They located the trio down by the hydraulic canal, and Snow and Costello threw a lot of stuff into the canal, while Jimmy Walker, before he was cornered, threw in the bag containing the rest of the stuff, and the divers were sent down, but the goods were never recovered.

The police only got the three after some shooting, but they consented to waive extradition. The two received a 23 months' sentence, and had only been in the prison about two weeks.

ELECTIONS NEXT YEAR.

Le Nationaliste Predicts That There Will Be Delay.

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Le Nationaliste of to-day confirms the Toronto World's statement that Hon. Mr. Fielding contemplates retirement at an early date, and the Sunday paper declares that the federal minister will probably succeed Lord Strathcona as high commissioner.

Le Nationaliste also prophesies that the election will be held this year, giving the following reason: "Lord Grey is understood to have said to his advisor: 'The opposition has brought against you charges of such a serious character and of such proofs of so explicit a nature that I cannot accord you a dissolution until the election will have been held. Prove this, so that I may continue my confidence.'"

"Then it is known that a very significant incident took place the other day at St. Paul, Solicitor Bureau, which is referred in his speech to the elections as taking place this year. Sir Wilfrid has heard later on administration a very severe lesson in discretion to the member for Three Rivers."

"A general exodus of strikebreakers is expected on the fifteenth, the men refusing to live in the filthy quarters provided by the company. The company are disregarding the interests of the country and following out the precept of Commodore Vanderbilt, 'the public be damned.'"
