BURGLARS AT VOKES CO. Even the Nightworkers Call Early the New Building.

On Thursday night, under cover of street. The building, which has only recently been finished, is the most section of Queen-street and had been safety, the window being filled with heavily wired fireproof glass. An entrance could not have been accomplish ed without considerable noise and difficulty and this renders it all the more likely that the robbers took advantage of the opportunity afforded by the disturbed weather conditions.

An examination showed that entrance had been obtained thru a rear window and that in the process the burglar had not escape injury, blood marks remaining on the inner sill. In order to reach the premises various

TWO BOY COMPETITORS

Canadian Cadets to Shoot For Prince of Wales Medal.

Galen Hagarty, son of the principal of Harbord Collegiate Institute, has been selected by Inspector Hughes to go to England to compete for the Prince of Wales medal. This is in response to an invitation from England for Canada to send two cadets under 16 years of age to compete. The other will be from Ottawa. Galen Hagarty will leave on Wednes day next to catch next week's C. P. R impress. This will give the boys very little time to practise at Bisley before the 24th. One more cadet from Torthe small yard at the back having a the 24th. One more cadet from Tor-high fence round it and being filled onto, representing the public school with packing cases. Before the fence itself could be reached, a large pile of pany the two originally selected.

For booty the burglar annexed a years of age, but has been doing some quantity of expensive cutlery, whose good shooting at the ranges. Cadet value is estimated at between $200 and Wilbur Campbell of the Harbord In$300. These were mostly from show stitute, who stood highest in the O.R.A. cases in the front of the store and the match last August, came very near bety might have been more, but for ing the lucky boy, but as his birthda the fact that the Vekes Hardware Co. falls on June 28, and he will be six-only moved in on May 1 from its old teen years of age on that day, he is laide. The robbery was not discovered quire that the boys be not sixteen on till the employes arrived at 7 o'clock July 1.
