THE T. EATON CO LIMITED

SIR GEO. BIRDWOOD IS NOW EIGHTY-FIVE

Would Like to Be a Boy Again Just for a Change.

IS AN OPTIMIST STILL

Had Hopes That Christmas Would See the End of War.

London, Jan. 14.—Sir George Birdwood, dozen of delightful letter writers, philosopher and optimist, entered cheerily upon his 85th year the other day.

"I am spending the evening of my life full of hope and assurance of a happy issue—a victorious issue—of the allies in Armageddon," he said. "I am an optimist still. Of course, I see the difficulties; in the summer I had fond hopes that Christmas Day would see the end. We have at last the consolation of knowing that the last few weeks have flashed a bright ray of hope about the nation. And I know that Mr. Lloyd George, with his new and enormous responsibilities, is the very man for the position he has now found himself in. With such a magnetic and masterful figure at the head of affairs now, I have every confidence in the reconstruction, provided it has the full support of the nation."

"Turning for a brief moment to his own affairs, Sir George rose from the sofa upon which he was reclining, wrapped his furred dressing-gown around his small, spare figure, executed a courtly bow, and said, with a smile: "Behold me now—a saint! Today I have reached the figure of age mightily glorified by the wise Hindu. It is called by him 'chaturash', which means the eighty-four—being the sacred number obtained by multiplying the signs of the Zodiac by the number of planets. When a man is chaturash, such as I—he is totally exempt from all punishments, celestial or mundane.

TYPICAL GERMAN BETRAYS MOTHER

Hands His Own Flesh and Blood Over to the Royalists.

WAS MINISTER TO U.S.

Removed, However, Owing to a Blunder in Coal Deal.

Salonica, Jan. 14.—The unhappy victims of the savagery of the Athenian Royalists continue to arrive here in crowds, and give terrible accounts of their last days at Athens. Among other details is related, as a characteristic example of Teutonic altruism, the conduct of M. Schliemann, a member of the Greek chamber, of German origin, who, having perceived his mother and sister leaving their house in order to escape the dangerous neighborhood of the house of Venezuela, had the unpeakable cruelty to point them out in the street as being Venezuelans, and left them to the fury of the Reservists.

Further information furnished by refugees declares that for two days the Venezuelian inhabitants of Athens and its surroundings were systematically attacked and persecuted. The number of victims who fell in the course of these attacks is estimated at 150, many of whom are well known. Practically all en route nationals in Athens have embarked, and all arrangements have been made for the departure of the entente diplomatists. Professor Burrows states that the Deputy Schliemann referred to is Venezuela the only son of the famous German archeologist, Heinrich Schliemann, the discoverer of Mycenae and Troy, who married a Greek lady and took up his residence in Greece. Since his death, Mme. Schliemann and her daughter have been prominent figures in Athenian society, and everywhere widely known for their public spirit and benevolence. The son was in 1913 appointed by M. Venizelos, minister at Washington, where he became involved in an unfortunate blunder connected with the purchase of coal for the Greek Government. M. Venizelos, who does not suffer fools gladly, recalled him, and Agamemnon has ever since been one of the bitterest enemies of M. Venizelos. It is a significant comment on the difference between the old Germany and the new that his father's marriage with a Greek lady symbolized his romantic love for the Greek people, while the son, by denouncing his Greek mother to the king's royalties, has symbolized the divorce between the Greek people and the Greek King.

AMERICAN ACTORS IN PATRIOTIC TABLEAUX

President Wilson Cables That They Gratitude Him That They Are Doing So.

Beef Stew and Beans in Luxury Class at Newark

Newark, N.J., Jan. 14.—The cost of living continues to rise, along with Jersey munitions plants, despite the various federal, state and municipal investigations. The latest addition to the "aid arms" eat shops, which charge 20c for the same quantity of beef and beans that a few months ago cost only 10c.

London, Jan. 14.—American stage favorites in London appeared in tableaux, sketches and song scenes at a matinee at the Palace Theatre the other day, and realized $12,000 for the "Consents at the Front" fund.

Mr. Walter Hackett read the following cablegram from President Wilson: "It is deeply gratifying to me to know that Americans in the belligerent countries are working so hard to alleviate suffering, and I sincerely hope that your efforts may be crowned with success."

Paris, Jan. 14.—The chamber is discussing a bill on economy. The most interesting proposal has been presented by M. Romell in the nature of a war tax. The tax would affect those who, either of an age for service, and for some reason exempt from service in the army. The tax would be fixed at the amount of 12 francs, besides a proportional sum calculated on the principle of income tax.

Italian Gunners Do Effective Shooting on Trentino Front

Rome, Jan. 14, via London.—(British admiralty per Wireless Press)—Following is today's official report of military operations:

"Trentino front: The artillery was active. By our accurate fire we disturbed important enemy movements behind the lines and hit battery emplacements. "Julian front: The activity of the artillery was restricted by bad weather, which, however, did not interrupt the customary useful activity of our patrols."

CATTLE STEALING CHARGE. A. Allen, Simcoe Farmer, Pleads Not Guilty Before Judge Fisher.

Orangeville, Jan. 14.—Albert Allen, a Simcoe farmer, appeared before County Judge Fisher today charged with the theft of three cattle belonging to W. F. Brown of the same county. He pleaded not guilty and bail was fixed at $2000. Allen claims he bought the cattle in question from two men he did not know.

GOVERNMENT WILL TAKE OVER MINES

Duty Not Realized.

The attitude of the operators, so far, in refusing to grant the increase, as shown by Harrison's report, is to be regretted. In so doing, having regard to all the conditions, the apparent lack of willingness on their part to assist in preventing a very serious condition of affairs, is probably the most notable failure on the part of any organization to recognize and to appreciate their share of the country's many difficulties since the outbreak of the war.

"The government has a special and a direct responsibility to see to it that no suffering will occur to the soldiers of western Canada for the want of the coal during the winter months. The government has also the responsibility of seeing that sufficient coke will be provided to keep the smelters in the Crow's Nest going to assist in the manufacture of war munitions."

Ten days ago a conference opened between the operators and the miners with the government as intermediaries, but all efforts to reach an agreement have failed and the beginning of a strike tomorrow appears to be unavoidable. If a strike is begun, it will not be of long duration, however. The people of the province cannot go without fuel, and the government will operate the mines if the operators do not. Operators Blamed. In the view of the minister of labor the operators are responsible for the trouble and they will pay the cost either directly or indirectly. "In November last," says the official statement, "the miners, presented a demand for an increased war bonus of 25 per cent, to cover the extra cost of living. After several conferences it was finally suggested that a commissioner should be appointed to ascertain the actual conditions as to the increased cost of living to the miners. Mr. Harrison, of the labor department, was agreed upon to make the investigation. His report is now in and shows an increase of nine and a half per cent, upon such articles as are required for use by the miners in their daily cost of living."
