

Adjournment Motion

hon. members opposite, we hope to proceed to Bill C-26, the scientific activities bill.

Mr. Paproski: What about the Canadian anthem?

Mr. Hnatyshyn: I wonder whether the deputy House leader would like to go any further, in order that the co-operation, which is quite usual from this side of the House, may be continued, and let us know what other items of legislation might be forthcoming when we deal expeditiously with the bills he has named.

Mr. Blais: Yes, Mr. Speaker, and I am pleased to have that further co-operation. Subject to alteration of the following order and depending on the bills that will be reported, with that co-operation, out of committees in the next few days, we intend to proceed with Bill C-13, the historic sites bill; Bill S-3, the insurance companies bill, and Bill C-6, the diplomatic immunities bill. In view of the co-operation that the hon. member offers, I would ask also for the co-operation of hon. members opposite at the committee stage in order that we get some of the important bills out of committees and into the House so that we can proceed with them prior to the end of June.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): In this atmosphere of co-operation I wonder if the acting government House leader will indicate when we will deal with Bill C-30, which has to do with Heritage Day?

Mr. Blais: In due course, Mr. Speaker.

HOUSE OF COMMONS

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. André Fortin (Lotbinière): Mr. Speaker, during the proceedings of the House of Commons on May 12, 1977, as reported in Hansard at page 5554, the Chair recognized that points raised by the Social Credit Party of Canada concerning

[Mr. Blais.]

Radio-Canada could not be considered as a question of privilege but as very valid grievances, particularly those of the hon. member for Bellechasse (Mr. Lambert) and mine. Since the corporation did not change its attitude after the by-elections and the work of the members of the Social Credit Party of Canada continues to be completely ignored by the corporation, we consider that we cannot wait any longer for the results of the CRTC inquiry and that the matter justifies an emergency debate. I move, seconded by the hon. member for Bellechasse (Mr. Lambert):

That this House do now adjourn.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The hon. member for Lotbinière (Mr. Fortin), seconded by the hon. member for Bellechasse (Mr. Lambert), moves:

That this House do now adjourn.

Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some hon. Members: No.

Mr. Speaker: All those in favour will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members have risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members.
