The family of the late Capt. A. A. McLean, of Albert street, North End, would like to thank the staff of the United Workmen for payment of the death claim on their father, who died at Mobile some time ago, and was buried there. Mr. McLean was a member of Chambers Lodge of this city. The officers of the lodge paid over the large cheque just recently.

A surprise party was given at the home of J. N. Tonge on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Mona Turner, a lady of the Union Club staff, who will leave in about two weeks for the west. A handsome silver mounted comb and brush set was presented to her. Miss Turner has been here for about five years and has made many friends who regret her leaving, but wish her all success.

AND ONCE MORE THE TRICK FAILED

An Effort to Prevent the Issue of the Daily Telegraph This Morning Was Not Successful

Last evening two members of the St. John Typographical Union induced a member of the press-room staff of the Daily Telegraph to go to the union rooms, on pretence that someone there wanted to see him. They called at the hotel to tell him this story, and accompanied him to the hall. Then a messenger was sent to tell this man's working companion that the former wanted to see him.

Having got both men at the hall, members of the union told them that they must get out of town or cease to work for the Telegraph. Not only so, but two members of the union went with them to another hotel than that at which they had been staying, and remained with them, one until six o'clock and the other until six o'clock this morning. The moment the last visitor had gone, the men telephoned to the manager of the Telegraph. Both of them had feared personal violence.

The Telegraph came out this morning as usual—16 pages. The trick had failed. The management of these papers desires to observe that there is a constant intimation, which it would be very reluctant to set in motion, but which nevertheless can be invoked if necessary.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

There were eight deaths reported at the office of the board of health during the present week as follows: Congestion of lungs, two; asthma, exposure, apoplexy, pleuro-pneumonia, oedema of lungs, and ossicular bronchitis one each.

The Easter term of the supreme court opens here on April 14th.

Work on the new spans of the highway bridge has been suspended today on account of the strong wind which makes it impossible to operate the traveller used for raising the superstructure.

CELEBRATION OF GOLDEN WEDDING

Conductor and Mrs. John Sproule Were Fifty Years Married Yesterday

Conductor John Sproule of the I. C. E. and his wife, yesterday celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Sussex. Mr. and Mrs. Sproule have been lifelong residents of Sussex. They were married in April 1858 by Rev. James Grey and the first few years of their life were spent on a farm.

It was only a few years later that Conductor Sproule commenced his long and honorable career as a railway man. It is in this sphere of life that he has come to be known by thousands and many heads of leading families in this province travelled as boys on "John Sproule's train." Mr. Sproule first entered the freight department at Sussex, 38 years ago. After working there for three years he was placed on the road and with the exception of short periods spent in doing relief work he has been continuously on the run from Sussex to St. John for 35 years. During that time the Conductor, who is now the father of the I. C. E. service, has made thousands of friends. He has ever been an obliging official, while he has always done his duty faithfully and his disappearance from the service would be a matter of sincere regret to those who have known him so favorably all these years.

The union of Mr. and Mrs. Sproule was blessed with seven children. They are, in order of seniority, Annie, Mrs. George Warren, Sussex; Dr. Jasper, Chatham; Heber, Newmarket; Dr. Beverley, Campbellton; and Bertie, Mrs. McNichol, wife of Dr. McNichol, Bathurst. The wedding anniversary was marked by a reunion of the family and a very enjoyable time was spent.

SUNDAY SERVICES

Meeting of Bible students for the study of "present truth." Services held in Old Fellows' Hall, Union street, Sunday, at 3 p. m. Subject, "The Scripture teaching on the second coming of Christ." Has it come, or when will it come. All are cordially invited.

Leinster Street United Baptist Church, Rev. W. Camp, M. A., pastor—Preaching by the pastor at both services. Bible school at 2:30. At close of morning service the ordinance of baptism will be observed. Special services will be held every night during the week beginning at 8 o'clock. Strangers and friends are cordially invited to all these services.

Services at Queen Square Methodist Church—Preacher, 11 a. m., Rev. E. C. Jenkins, of Ludlow Street Baptist Church; 7 p. m., Rev. G. M. Campbell. Sunday school and pastor's Bible class at 2:30 p. m.; Epworth League, Monday evening, 8 o'clock; Junior League, Wednesday evening, 7 o'clock; church prayer meeting, 8 o'clock. Strangers cordially welcomed.

Every Day Club Concert.

The Every Day Club life and drum band was very much in evidence last evening. It marched from Simonds street, North End, to the hall in Waterloo street, and was accompanied by a large crowd.

In the hall a fine concert was given, and, in addition to selections by the band, it included readings by Misses Allan and Bows, songs by Miss Louie, Miss Braden, S. Herbert Mayes, John Salmon, Miss Sadie Walker, Messrs. Macer, Rees and Gray; organ; duet, by Messrs. Oram and Gray; Dupluis; dancing by McFadden, Caffrey, Melchenny and Guthrie. The hall was crowded and the entertainment greatly enjoyed. It was a band benefit, and they are to be congratulated on their success.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Thos. B. Foley, late of the St. John customs department, a citation had been issued in this matter for the passing of accounts, which, all parties interested being present, were passed. T. P. Regan, proctor.
