NURSE WRITES OF THE DEATH OF ARTHUR MYERS

St. John Soldier of the 26th Who Lost Life in Charge on German Mined Crater

A letter, with sympathetic tone dominating it, has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myers, 15 Spruce Street, from France, written by Sister Ann, a nun of No. 8 Casualty Clearing Station, telling of the death of their son, Pte. J. Arthur Myers, killed with others of that gallant band of thirty in the charge of the 26th Battalion upon a mined German crater.

"I am writing you these few lines," the nursing sister said, "to tell you that your poor boy died in this little hospital yesterday, October 14, at 7.05 a. m. He was brought in from the front by our ambulance, together with a great many other poor men, sorely wounded, and though everything was done for him he gradually sank and died at the above stated time. I hope it will mitigate your sorrow to remember that he was tenderly cared for in his last hours by the sisters and medical officers and laid to rest in a beautiful little British cemetery, buried by our own chaplains—while so many other dear men have found only a soldier's rough grave away in the battle field.

"He is buried with roses placed to his breast, but there by us in memory of a brave soldier, and so that he may have a loving home-touch (by proxy). He is lying at a place called Bellefleur, in Flanders, and in after days should you wish a photo of the grave, you should write giving all particulars to O. C. Grave Registration Commission, Lillers, France, not forgetting to say where he is buried. The rose leaves enclosed are taken from his breast. He is lying, as I write, before the little altar in our chapel.

"With much regret and sympathy, I am, sincerely yours,
ANN B. DENTON.

FOUR HOWARD BOYS IN KHAKI

City Road Family Does Well For Empire and Home

TRANSFER FROM HALIFAX

Sixteen Men Coming For The Siege Battery—Recruiting Reports Good—Indication of New Battalions

With four sons in the khaki uniform, two at the front and two preparing to follow, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howard of 189 City Road, naturally feel that they and their family are doing well for empire and home, and are proud at the noble response made by their boys to the country's appeal for men.

The four boys who have joined the colors are well known about the city. They are George, Walter, John and Percy. The first two named have been at the front for some time. George enlisted in the west with a cycle corps in Victoria, and crossed with the first contingent. Walter left here with the Divisional Ammunition Column. Recent letters from each of them tell of their being in good health and of their having had interesting experiences.

John is in training on Partridge Island with the siege battery, while Percy is a member of the 104th and will go to Sussex today or tomorrow to enter upon his training. There are two other boys at home, but they are too young to enlist—a fact which is causing them keen regret. The example of this family and others mentioned in the Times within the last few days with two and three sons in the khaki should prove an inspiration to others.

Transferred From Halifax.

A detachment of sixteen men from the composite battery of the 3rd Artillery, under Lieut. Col. Armstrong on Partridge Island, will leave here to go on defence duty at Halifax with the composite battery. They will relieve a detachment of sixteen men, former members of the local artillery, who have been on duty at the depot port for some months and are now in excellent trim after months of training. They are returning to St. John to go overseas with the siege battery. A request was made several days ago to headquarters in behalf of these men to be given an opportunity to go with the siege battery, and authorization has been received. Lieut. Bruce, this evening, appointed a committee, which will come to St. John later. The sixteen men from the composite battery at Halifax will be taken by Lieut. W. Wallace Alward of this city. With the siege battery will be the composite.

The 104th.

The reports being received in the city regarding recruiting at various centres indicate that the 104th is nearly filled. Three men were accepted here for enlistment this morning with that unit—E. F. DeLaurier, of St. John; J. Edwin White of Bathurst, and John M. Perkins of Conception, N. S., while several others are on the waiting list.

Construction Corps.

Recruits are signing readily for the Canadian Overseas Railway Construction Corps. Many names have been forwarded for approval and the returns are expected back soon.

New Units; Recruiting.

The appointment of Colonel H. H. McLean, M. P., as special recruiting officer for the maritime provinces, following the selection of L. P. D. Tilley, M. P., as recruiting officer for New Brunswick, is taken as an indication that several new units are to be formed in these parts within the near future. It is not said what they will be, but it is thought positively that there will be a mounted reinforcement draft and other units. A despatch from Ottawa several days ago spoke of New Brunswick's quota as being calculated at 4,000 men between now and spring, so that a vigorous recruiting campaign is anticipated.

The Boys' Clothing Store is Ready As Never Before

Ready with the largest stock of Boys' Suits and Overcoats in its history—and the best, to our knowledge.

We have never had such a variety to show; we have never had garments of a better quality; and the word quality used in connection with these clothes means something.

Every suit and overcoat in the assortment was tailored according to our own ideas, from our own pick of the woolen market; and we picked the finest goods in extra large quantities months and months ago, so as to be able to offset the very market conditions that now prevail.

Mothers who want to be sure that the new suits or overcoats they put upon their boys are the best to be had for the money, will surely want to see the best stock we have ever had to show them, and that means the best to be seen in St. John.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

The boy problem has been manifesting itself in Fairville late in rather an annoying fashion, particularly noticeable at the recruiting meeting in Temperance Hall a fortnight ago, when a rowdy gathering of boys in their teens acted unruly. The committee have arranged that tonight the policemen will be on hand to preserve order at the meeting and no unseemly actions will be tolerated. This announcement is made in order that those who expect to attend the meeting should be prepared to be on hand to see that no such repetition of disgraceful conduct occurs.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Fairville Methodist Church held their annual conference at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Earle, Lancaster Heights, and there was a good attendance. A paper on Contrasts in Child Training Here and in Japan was read by Mrs. Gilbert Egan and proved very interesting. Mrs. S. A. Worrell read the report of the delegate to the branch meeting.

Mrs. O. D. Hanson presided at the business session and several new members were welcomed. Dainty refreshments were served.

HENDERSON-MCALARY.

A wedding of popular interest was solemnized by Rev. W. E. Sampson in St. George's church, West St., on Monday morning at six o'clock, when he united in marriage F. Roy Henderson of West End, and Miss Isabelle Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McAlary, formerly of East Boston, but now of Fairville. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a navy blue suit and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Helen Brittain attended her as bridesmaid, dressed in navy blue with white satin hat, while Arthur Adams of the 104th Battalion Band, supported the groom. Many costly remembrances were received. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold pendant and chain, and to the groomsmen a pearl tie pin. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left for Sackville, where they will reside.

A REGRETTABLE MATTER

The Times published on Tuesday, in the regular column for such matters, an advertisement announcing that Miss Annie Bradley and William Kingston, both of Fairville, had been married on October 29 by Rev. Father Duke in the Cathedral. It was wholly incorrect; there was no such marriage. The announcement was declared to be from a member of one of the families, who as such was accepted. Whoever was guilty of such contemptible action has little cause for rejoicing. Meanwhile The Times deeply regrets having permitted publication.

A PRESENTATION.

Last evening friends of Gunner Clarence W. Travis, who has recently joined the siege battery, met in the form of a surprise party at the home of M. J. Murphy, City Road. Reginald Downer, on behalf of those present, presented to him a military wrist watch as a token of the great esteem in which the young man is held. After a pleasant evening spent in music and games, the gathering dispersed with good wishes for his safe return.

MRS. ROBT. HICKEY HEARS FROM SON AND NEPHEW

Another man at the front who wants to see some of his former comrades getting into the game is Arthur L. Hickey, D. A. C. 1st contingent. In a letter to his mother, Mrs. Robert Hickey, 14 Sydney Street, he asks: "What is the news north shore have come out to the front? It is funny, but I have never seen any of them. What is the matter with them, have they cold feet or are they waiting for some one to hand them the white feather?" He adds that they had three Zeppelins hovering over them during the previous night, the first they had seen.

Mrs. Hickey also has a letter from her nephew, William O'Brien, 26th Battalion. He says: "I have been on the firing line and have been very lucky so far. Poor George Miles met with hard luck, but I think he will recover all right. I am sending you a piece of shrapnel I found in my cap, you can keep it for a souvenir. Tell the others to write, as there is nothing pleases us more than to get letters from dear old St. John."

SCHOOL BOYS' FOOTBALL

The school boys' football games, which were not played last Saturday because of rain will be played on the Shamrock grounds tomorrow. The first game will start at four o'clock sharp, Albert vs. Centennial School. Immediately following this game the St. Malachi boys and Winter street lads will enter the arena.

ADVANCES IN PRICE.

Manitoba flour has advanced ten cents. Oats have advanced two cents and the market very firm. Feed is steady but bran is tending upward.

Standardizing the Kitchen

It used to be—"the bigger the kitchen the better."

Now it is—"how small and compact can we make it—how can we save space?"

Efficiency is entering the home—entering to stay.

Indoors, the kitchen is always full of standard labor-saving devices.

These are inexpensive, practical, helpful.

The woman who is not posted about such things is out of date and is doing unnecessary work.

The advertising columns of The Telegraph and Times frequently carry suggestions that assist the up-to-date housewife.
