

BOSTON GIVES WARM WELCOME TO LOUIS MAYER

Former Saint John Man Who Has Made Name in Movies

A recent Boston paper tells of a reception and dinner tendered to a former Saint John man, later a resident of Boston, on his return there for a short visit. It says: "Louis B. Mayer, formerly a resident of this city and now a prominent motion picture producer and production manager for the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Corporation, was given a monster demonstration on his arrival here yesterday. He was met at the South Station by a delegation of men from the Boston Fire Department consisting of Chief Bennett, 10 officers and 85 men, as well as a delegation of local film men and a key of prominent actresses. As soon as he alighted from the train he was presented with a six foot key to the city and a high bouquet, and then escorted to a limousine. He was then taken to a hotel where he was met by a delegation of the Boston Fire Department, led by Chief Bennett, and a delegation of the film men and actresses, and 85 visiting firemen, to say nothing of thousands who lined the sidewalk and headed for the Coppley-Place hotel.

FORMALLY GREETED

"At the head of the procession was an immense banner in the form of a bean pot bearing the inscription 'Welcome Home to Louis B. Mayer.' Two similar ones were stretched on either side of the ladder truck. At the Coppley-Place Mr. Mayer was greeted by representatives of the city and government. The party repaired to the dining room, there to do justice to the good things spread before them. Seated at the head table with Mr. Mayer were C. L. Burrill representing the Governor, Police Commissioner H. A. Wilson, Geo. Curran of the Governor's council, Chief Bennett who represented the Mayor, Judge Brackett, Fire Chief Daly of Brockton, Mayor McGregor of Haverhill, of which city Mr. Mayer was formerly a resident, and Fire Chief Francis of Manchester, and representatives of the film industry.

Speeches were in order, and Chief Bennett spoke of the importance of the picture 'flumes' now in course of production at the Mayor's studios, to fire departments, and proceeded to pin a badge of the Boston Fire Department on Mr. Mayer's lapel. Mr. Mayer then made an honorary citation of two departments, here and Los Angeles.

"The representatives of Boston's mayor claimed Mr. Mayer as that city's own but this was disputed by Mayor McGregor of Haverhill, and the matter was finally settled by Judge Brackett, who belongs to New Brunswick, gave a history of the life of the guest of honor.

SPEAKS OF 'STARS'

In reply Mr. Mayer warmly thanked those present for his reception and went on to say that the day of the 'star' in pictures had departed. While a 'star' might be a 'star' in one picture he would turn out to be anything but a success in another, as was easily testified to by fluctuations of $80,000 in the weekly receipts of one theatre. It was the box office that told the story. He said that there would be five or six new 'stars' this year. The public were demanding better pictures and the producers were making every effort to provide them, with the result that there was practically no need now for censorship. He went on to describe the value of films to education and science.

Saint John Collie Found Wandering In Westmount Restored Through License Tag

THE WEARING of a Saint John license tag saved a valuable collie, found wandering recently in the streets of Westmount, Montreal, and resulted in the restoration of the family pet to its home.

The dog was owned by Mrs. Gunn, 197 Carmarthen street, and was taken to Montreal when Mrs. Gunn visited that city some time ago to see her son who was ill in hospital. He was taken along at the wish of her young son. When she was leaving to return to Saint John the authorities refused to allow the dog on the train without a certificate and as she had not time to get the certificate and catch the train Mrs. Gunn left the dog with a friend there to be forwarded later. It is now posed the dog got away from this friend and was taken in by the police in Westmount.

Seeing the license tag and recognizing that the dog was a valuable one, a demonstration on his arrival here yesterday. He was met at the South Station by a delegation of men from the Boston Fire Department consisting of Chief Bennett, 10 officers and 85 men, as well as a delegation of local film men and a key of prominent actresses. As soon as he alighted from the train he was presented with a six foot key to the city and a high bouquet, and then escorted to a limousine. He was then taken to a hotel where he was met by a delegation of the Boston Fire Department, led by Chief Bennett, and a delegation of the film men and actresses, and 85 visiting firemen, to say nothing of thousands who lined the sidewalk and headed for the Coppley-Place hotel.

"He was quickly placed on the seat and joined by Fire Chief Bennett. The parade was started by Brockton, by the Cecil W. Fogg Hyde Park American Legion Band and escorted by the members of the Boston Fire Department, box 52 association, the film men and actresses, and 85 visiting firemen, to say nothing of thousands who lined the sidewalk and headed for the Coppley-Place hotel.

BOGUS COUSIN CAUGHT IN ACT

Attempt to Swindle Local Hebrew Out of $75 Is Frustrated

A new method of obtaining funds was unveiled here yesterday and as a result Samuel Halport, of Buffalo, N. Y., was arrested last evening at McAdams Junction by C. P. R. Constable Morgan at the instance of the Saint John detective department.

It appears that about a month ago Samuel Goldfeather, of this city, advertised in a Hebrew paper in New York for a long lost cousin, and a few days ago he received a letter asking him to come to Saint John. He immediately left for Saint John, and on the next morning he was arrested by Constable Morgan at the instance of the Saint John detective department. He was taken to the police station and held for a few days. He was then released on a $75 bail, and he was allowed to return to New York. He was then arrested again, and he was held for a few days. He was then released on a $75 bail, and he was allowed to return to New York. He was then arrested again, and he was held for a few days. He was then released on a $75 bail, and he was allowed to return to New York.

SUSPICION RAISED They went to the Boston train together and on the strangers' arrival at the depot one of the crew of the Boston train said, "Are you going back with us tonight again? You just came down this morning." This casual remark aroused the suspicions of Mr. Goldfeather as his alleged cousin had said that he had arrived that day from Montreal.

After the train had departed Mr. Goldfeather communicated his fears to Constable Morgan, who immediately telephoned to Constable Morgan at McAdams Junction to arrest the stranger. They were just in time as word was received at McAdams that the train arrived. It was discovered that his name was Samuel Halport, of Buffalo, N. Y. The sum of $75 was recovered from him. Arrangements were made by the city police with the C. P. R. investigation department here to have Constable Morgan bring the prisoner to Saint John at noon today where he was met by city detectives.

It was said that Halport came here with the idea that he might come to a legacy in his finding such not to be the case, he tried to clear expenses.

FREED ON BAIL Joseph Hatty, arrested at 7 o'clock last night by Sergeant-Detective Power and Detective Biddiscombe on a charge of unlawfully receiving and having in his possession two automobile wheels, fully equipped and valued at $25 each, the property of K. C. Irving, appeared before Magistrate Henderson last night and was allowed out on $1,000 bail until 11 o'clock Monday morning when his case will be heard.

NEW ELECTRIC CLOCK SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 29.—An electrical supply company has announced invention of a new electric clock which it plans to put on the market in the near future. The clock is operated by a tiny motor which winds the main spring and keeps it at even tension, thereby making possible greater accuracy in time recording.
