

WHY I LOST
MY JOBReasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers

I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last pay envelope comes along, it is usually "Your services no longer required." If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indigestion. These things, as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active and free from outside influence or worry, or else we go down to failure with the throng of "floaters" who go from one place of employment to another, giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambition, no will power, and no hope. Every man requires from every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is free from all mental indispositions and worries.

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order, and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy and slow. I made mistakes, and grew grouchy. That was the end.

There are thousands like me, going about with "quick lunch" faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive appearances. No employer wants such a man. No employer wants such a man.

Take my advice. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. It will keep your mind clear, and your body healthy, and you will be a man.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brash, eruptions, burning sensations, bloating, irritations, loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, lack of energy, loss of memory and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be freed from stomach troubles, and have a clear mind, a quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c a box.

WOULD DIM GLORY OF GREAT WHITE WAYBorough President Seeks to Put Ban on Electric Signs That Have Brought Fame

New York, Oct. 31.—The hand of the spoiler has been raised against the Great White Way and Broadway may be shorn of its glory. The municipality is now considering a bill to ban electric signs that have made New York famous all over the world have fallen under the ban of Borough President McAneny and he is planning their removal.

Not even the Strand, the Knickerbocker, or the Rue de la Paix is as famous as Broadway. Every visitor to New York knows that it is his first duty, after dark, to go to Forty-second street and join the endless parade that marches up and down the Great White way until midnight.

Year after year the great electric signs that have given the thoroughfare its nickname, have increased in number and size and ingenuity. The display at present is undoubtedly the most wonderful electrical exhibit in the world.

Borough President McAneny may succeed—and again he may not. He says he has the authority of the building laws, but the average New Yorker is of opinion that laws were made to be broken and when the hand of the vandal is raised against his much beloved Broadway it will have behind it something more than the authority of mere building laws.

Blase New York has refused to get very much excited over McAneny and his campaign.

Honour Ribbon Worked as Successful Passports

Paris, Oct. 31.—Germany's famous "Captain of Kopenick," who by posing in a uniform took possession of a town a year or two ago, and held a military review, has been outdone in France.

An ex-captain named Cognet has just been arrested after posing for several months as a high official of the colonial ministry and receiving all the honors due to that position. All he had to show was a gorgeous uniform and a bogus Legion of Honor decoration.

Under the name of Durand de Bellefond this brazen scamp appeared at the town of Contances and announced his intention of establishing a school there to train young men for service in the colonies. Naturally, there was nothing in the town too good for him.

CANADIAN MISSIONARIES IN TROUBLED CHINA

This hitherto unpublished group picture is the most complete ever taken of the Canadian Methodist missionaries in the Province of Szechuen, where the rebels have secured perhaps stronger foothold than in any other Chinese province. Reports so far say that the rebels have not attacked the foreigners, but Chinese mobs are notoriously fierce and hard to control.

FOR FOOD AS MUTTONHigh Prices Lead Germans To Great Consumption of Equines.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—The prices of all kinds of meat have risen to such an extent throughout the empire that horse-flesh has become an article of common consumption.

In the first six months of this year 38,777,485 pounds of horse-flesh were sold as against 45,683 pounds of mutton.

In view of the great agitation for a decrease in import duties on food-stuffs and the abolition of the export bounty system, which raises the price of fodder, the Prussian minister of agriculture has issued a decree in which he points out the great difference between wholesale and retail prices, especially in regard to pork, which is the favorite meat of the Germans, forming more than half of the total of meat consumed.

The minister enjoins the cities to endeavor to bring about an understanding with the retailers and if they are unable to do so to take effective action by selling meat, vegetables, fruit and more especially fish, themselves, and to this end he promises to arrange that reduced railroad freight tariffs shall be accorded to municipalities which provide retail food stores for the benefit of their citizens.

Wilmerdorf and other suburbs of Berlin have already started municipal food stores which are a great success and Berlin has just decided to open 70 stalls for a similar purpose in the public markets. Many provincial cities are following suit.

CAUSES MUCH DISEASE

Advice About Stomach Troubles and How to Relieve Them

Do not neglect indigestion which may lead to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent physician once said that ninety per cent of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach.

My experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads me to believe that it is among the most dependable remedies known for the relief of indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. The ingredients are soothing and healing, the flavored membranes of the stomach, and are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is very prompt.

For a short time, they tend to bring about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Recall Dyspepsia Tablets help to insure healthy appetite to aid digestion, and thus promote nutrition. As evidence of my sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, I ask you to try them at my risk.

If they do not give you entire satisfaction I will return you the money you paid for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at my store—The Rexall Store, Chas. R. Wasson, 190 King street.

DR. BELL IN CITY LAST NIGHT

To deliver an address before the Society of Telephone Pioneers at Boston, Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, passed through the city last evening en route from Quebec, Cape Breton. Dr. Bell has been spending the season at his summer home at Belvedere, and went to Boston in answer to a request from the officers of the new society.

The first meeting of the society will be held in Boston tomorrow and Dr. Bell has consented to deliver an historical address covering the invention and the development of the telephone system.

Dr. Bell was accompanied by two of his grandchildren, little Miss P. Fairchild and Alexander Graham Bell Fairchild. They are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild of Washington (D. C.), and are returning to their parents.

During the summer Dr. Bell had the company of eight of his grandchildren at Belvedere (C. B.), but they have not returned to the homes of their parents.

In order to become a minuscule you have only to hunt up a grievance.

New York, Oct. 31.—Crowds passing into a moving picture show in Fortieth street, off Broadway, the other night, gave their tickets to a modestly dressed man at the door.

"Who is that man?" some one asked. "I have seen him before."

"It's Halsey Corwin," a man near answered. "That's the same Halsey who inherited $800,000 from his father, Halsey Corwin, ex-controller of Brooklyn. His money is all gone now and he is working for $12 a week."

"How do you like this sort of a job?" Corwin was asked.

"I never was as happy in my life, and I never was better," he answered. "Now, please don't ask me to make any statement or give advice to rich young men," he laughed. "I know that is what they expect of me, now that I am down to hard-pan. My present position doesn't warrant my giving advice to any one."

Corwin is many pounds heavier than he was when he was buying out Broadway restaurants nightly. He was told that business seems to agree with him.

"It certainly does," he answered.

WINNEPEG, MAN., June 14, 1911. "One day last winter while exposed to the weather I contracted a very severe cold, and I was several months getting rid of it. It left me in a weakened condition, and I became very nervous and worn out. Things went from bad to worse, and it was not until I was obliged to stop work, in fact, I was too nervous and shaky to work on my feet. I decided to try a bottle of Morrissey's No. 14 Blood Tonic, and after taking several bottles I felt the need of good food to build me up, and after several days I was able to go to work again. I am now as strong as ever, and I use a box of your Blood Tonic and have no hesitancy in saying, for the benefit of other sufferers who are in a state of decline, that your Blood Tonic is the safest and surest remedy they could take."
