

The Canadian Bank of Commerce
ESTABLISHED 1867.
CAPITAL PAID-UP $10,000,000 RESERVE FUND $6,000,000
TOTAL ASSETS $16,000,000
216 Branches throughout Canada, and in the United States and England.
Banking By Mail
Accounts may be opened by mail, and monies deposited or withdrawn in this way with equal facility. Every attention given to out of town accounts.
ST. JOHN BRANCH:
Cor. King and Germain Sts.
O. W. HALLAMORE, Manager.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

By special wire to J. M. Robinson & Sons, Broker, St. John, N. B.

Thursday, Sept. 7, 1910

Today's	Yesterday's	Today's	Yesterday's
Market	Market	Market	Market
Amalgamated Copper	63 1/2	63 1/2	63 1/2
Am Car and Foundry	40 1/2	40 1/2	40 1/2
Am Locomotive	30 1/2	30 1/2	30 1/2
Am Beet Sugar	36 1/2	36 1/2	36 1/2
Am Smelters	60 1/2	60 1/2	60 1/2
Am Tel & Tel	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Am Cotton Oil	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
Atch, Top & S Fe	97 1/2	97 1/2	97 1/2
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	74 1/2	74 1/2	74 1/2
Baltimore & Ohio	103 1/2	103 1/2	103 1/2
Canadian Pacific	180 1/2	180 1/2	180 1/2
Central Leather	32 1/2	32 1/2	32 1/2
Chicago & Gt Western	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
Cheapeake & Ohio	73 1/2	73 1/2	73 1/2
Consolidated Gas	128 1/2	128 1/2	128 1/2
ECR	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Gen'l Electric	123 1/2	123 1/2	123 1/2
Interborough Pld.	48 1/2	48 1/2	48 1/2
Kansas & Texas	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2
National Lead	50 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2
Northern Pacific	113 1/2	113 1/2	113 1/2
Norfolk & Western	69 1/2	69 1/2	69 1/2
Pacific Mail	27 1/2	27 1/2	27 1/2
Pennsylvania	127 1/2	127 1/2	127 1/2
Reading	120 1/2	120 1/2	120 1/2
Rock Island	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
Rock Island Pld.	62 1/2	62 1/2	62 1/2
Soo Railway	127 1/2	127 1/2	127 1/2
Southern Pacific	112 1/2	112 1/2	112 1/2
St. Paul	118 1/2	118 1/2	118 1/2
Texas Pacific	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Twin City	108 1/2	108 1/2	108 1/2
Union Pacific	164 1/2	164 1/2	164 1/2
Un States Rubber	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2
Un States Steel	37 1/2	37 1/2	37 1/2
Un States Steel Pld.	115 1/2	115 1/2	115 1/2
Utah Copper	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2
W. Va. Coal	27 1/2	27 1/2	27 1/2
Wabash Railway Pld.	35 1/2	35 1/2	35 1/2
Sales—11 o'clock, 103,000.
Sales—11 o'clock, 102,800.

Financial Letter.

New York, Sept. 8.—The stock market seems to be settling into a position where it responds better to good than to bad news. It seems that most of the expected unfavorable features have been discounted for the present at least. This does not necessarily mean that a bull campaign is to be inaugurated, but it is encouraging for the conservative bull. Under the circumstances it seems wiser for the daily trader, in maintaining a trading position, to give preference to the purchase of good stocks on reactions with stop order protection. Pair profits seem to be reasonably well assured under the latest developments.

Wall Street Today

New York, Sept. 8.—Stocks showed evidence of support in the opening dealings in face of another break in American Hide & Leather pld of 2-3-4, Reading advanced 1/2, and Union Pacific and American Tel. & Tel. advanced 1/2. Southern Pacific was down 3-4, and recovered immediately. N. Y. Air Brake declined 2-3-4. The dealings were of a very small scale.

WEDDINGS

Curry-Mackay.—The wedding of Miss Mary Curry, daughter of Mr. J. M. Curry, of St. John, N. B., and Mr. J. M. Mackay, of Montreal, was celebrated at 6 o'clock this evening.

THE RUSH TO THE CITY HEAVY TODAY

The exhibition traffic over the railroads has now taken on a noticeable increase and today the incoming trains are packed to their fullest capacity, with people coming to see the Dominion fair.

MT. ALLISON APPOINTMENTS

Sackville, N. B., Sept. 8.—The position on the vocal staff of Mount Allison University has been vacated by the resignation of Miss Edna Baker, who has been replaced by the appointment of Miss Margaret Munroe, of London, England, a very accomplished singer and teacher.

Miss Evelyn Ellis, of Digby, will sing at both services in the Main Street Baptist church on Sunday.

Miss Evelyn Ellis, of Digby, will sing at both services in the Main Street Baptist church on Sunday. She has studied voice in both Halifax and Boston. She has sung in Boston in church and concert work, and is said to possess a sweet voice.

WM. H. SIMSON OF HALIFAX IS DEAD IN PROVIDENCE

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 8.—(Special)—A telegram received today brought the news of the death of William H. Simson, of Providence, R. I. He left here August 23 on a vacation trip in vigorous health. Four days later a telegram announced that he was very ill with pneumonia at his son's home, Providence.

LOCAL NEWS

Two pairs men's half hose for 25c. at Corbett's, 196 Union Street.

When you have a cold at home, have dinner at White's next evening.

Have you the Tilley Monument postcard?

To produce the best laundry work in the Dominion, try the "Tilley" effort.

See our new book! If not your missing copy, call on C. B. Pigeon, Cor. Main and Bridge streets.

One of our $12.45 suits, made to order, to "look the part" of a successful man, of course you will want to see it.

Visitors to the exhibition should not leave the city without visiting the display of P. S. Thomas at his store, Main street. His invitation is extended to all.

Miss M. Campbell has just returned from Montreal to New York and is showing some very fine styles in fall millinery.

Visitors to the exhibition will do well to pay a visit to 108 Germain street.

The funeral of Isaac Bennett was held from his late home, 214 Main street, this morning at 10 o'clock.

Service was conducted at the house by Rev. J. D. Macdonald.

Campbellton Graphic.—The remains of Mrs. Ann Campbell were removed from the Catholic cemetery, Nelson, on Thursday last and taken by undertaker Murray to the Union depot and thence to St. John, N. B., where Mrs. Campbell was buried at Nelson last June.

Despite the unpleasant weather conditions, the attendance at Mr. A. A. Thomas' opening exhibition of large yester-day, and the British, arrived in European and American headwear met with interest.

The display of millinery trimmings, in this fall, unusually attractive, and includes among the most prominent features, the popular white plumes and bird of Paradise feathers, which adorn many of the trimmed hats in Mr. A. A. Thomas' display.

"WIN FOR US ALL ALONG THE LINE"

(Continued from page 1.)

The Standard says that, taken as a whole the decision should give satisfaction to Newfoundlanders.

The Standard recognizes the fairness whereof the American claims were presented, and says there was no reason why the British should not win.

The Standard, however, is not a defeat which is certainly not dishonour. The standard recognizes the fact that the British are not to be business for any important politicians to keep the old empire was best displayed.

The Morning Post after remarking that it is fortunate on this occasion that the government selected the Chief Justice of Canada to represent the empire in the court of arbitration says: "The points decided in favor of Britain are the most important parts of the controversy."

The Post criticized British diplomacy in the controversy when the controversy reached an acute stage. It would be difficult, says the Post, to find a more humiliating chapter of the history in British diplomacy.

In St. John's

(Associated Press).

St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 8.—The decision on the Newfoundland fisheries dispute is awaited here with great interest.

The winning of point on the part of Great Britain means, it is pointed out, that Newfoundland will have full power to control all fishery legislation, and makes the American fishermen subject thereto.

Newfoundland's victory on question five confirms her mastery over all the waters in which fish are obtained during the summer season.

Washington Admits It

Washington, Sept. 8.—A substantial victory for Great Britain on perhaps the two most important points, a consoling triumph for the United States in the other five points, with a prospect of another arbitration later at the instance of the United States government, is the way the decision of The Hague tribunal is viewed here.

The decision eliminates the right of the United States to share in the making and enforcing of "reasonable regulations" governing the fisheries in the disputed territory, and it is that qualification "reasonable," that may permit the United States government to sometime re-open the question of joint action as to the regions.

The defeat of the American contention on the first point, which includes regulation of the fishery, is especially deplored here. The other loss would concern the headland doctrine, wherein the British contention was that the three marine miles within which the United States agreed not to take, dry or cure fish, should be measured from the imaginary line drawn across the mouth of a bay from headland to headland.

HEARST CALLS ON ROOSEVELT TO FIGHT THE "BOSSSES"

New York, Sept. 8.—Republican leaders and members of the "Old Guard" committee were inclined to discuss today the cable statement of William Randolph Hearst from Paris urging Roosevelt to fight the "Bosses" in this state and the intimation that the Independence League would help him.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are whetting our tongues for the fray. There is no lack of us in our ranks. We do not care who leads, if only he leads right.

Mr. Hearst's declaration was deemed of much importance. Mr. Hearst concludes: "Come home to New York, Mr. Roosevelt, and honestly take the warpath against the bosses."

We independents are wh