On their return they will reside in St. George street, west side.

POLICE COURT TODAY

Sheffield Street Cases—Full Fine for Selling Cigarettes to Minor

Sheffield street society was well represented at the sitting of the police court this morning. Magistrate Ritchie presided and dealt with the cases in quite ample detail. Margaret Sullivan, who was released from custody but a few days ago, was again before the court, charged with being drunk in Sheffield street. She pleaded guilty and was remanded.

Eva Morrell, was charged with being drunk and using profane and obscene language in Sheffield street last night. She pleaded guilty and was fined $8 for each offence $24 in all, or six months in jail. She chose the latter.

William McEugan, charged with being drunk in Charlotte street last night was remanded, as was Leonard Kingston, who was arrested on a vagrancy charge.

Mary Ann Reid was charged with vagrancy and also for lying and lurking in George street. She was remanded.

Noel Lambkin a "big chief" was arrested in the Union depot yesterday on drunkenness charge. He was fined $8 or two months in jail and told to leave the fire water alone when next he came to town. Frank Oram, reported for encumbering Moore street with kindling wood was fined $2.

Dora Kately, a Jewish woman, was fined $40 or thirty days in jail for selling cigarettes to John McGuire a sixteen-year-old boy. She pleaded guilty and was fined the full penalty $40. Magistrate Ritchie gave her some good sound advice on the selling of cigarettes to boys and said that the practice must cease. "In future," said His Honor, "the full penalty will be imposed."

ANOTHER LARGE GAIN

The bank clearings at St. John, for the week ending yesterday amount to $1,268,831; corresponding week last year $1,363,324.

HON. WM. PUGSLEY

Leading Conservative Newspaper Pays Tribute to His Great Ability and Conspicuous Success

(From the Ottawa Citizen, Conservative.) A member of the administration who has perhaps been singled out for more criticism than any other cabinet minister and who has come out of many a tough encounter with his colors flying is the Right Hon. William Pugsley, M. A., K. C., D. C. L., P. C., the minister of public works. He was born in Sussex, Kings county, New Brunswick, in 1850, and was educated at the public schools in Sussex and at the University of New Brunswick, from which latter institution he graduated with the degree of bachelor of arts. He selected his profession of a lawyer, in which he rose to a position of eminence, being created a queen's counsellor. He began his political career in 1885, when elected to the legislature of New Brunswick. He became speaker of the assembly in 1887, which position he resigned in 1890 to become solicitor-general. He dropped out of politics altogether in 1892 to devote himself to his private law practice, but was induced to return in 1899. In 1900 he was appointed attorney-general and became premier of New Brunswick and attorney-general in 1907. In that year he resigned his positions and entered the Dominion House as minister of public works in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's cabinet. He was elected by acclamation for the constituency of St. John, New Brunswick, upon taking office, and was re-elected at the general election of 1908. He was made the object of fierce attacks both by his opponents in and out of the House of Commons, and through the press of the Conservative persuasion, in connection with his administration of his office in the New Brunswick parliament. Enquiries which were received vindicated the minister in a most thorough fashion and he was allowed afterwards to continue his duties in peace. He has justified to the fullest extent the foresight and wisdom of his great chief in selecting him for the office of minister of public works. His splendid parliamentary knowledge which he gathered in the school of provincial politics has greatly strengthened the administration and has made for more efficient government. Mr. Pugsley is an orator of considerable ability and power and ranks among the best speakers on his side of the House. He has a keen sense, a quick perception of the weaknesses of the arguments of his opponents and a sense of humor which have made his contributions to debate welcome. He resides in Ottawa as a member of the Rideau, Laurierian, County and Hunt clubs of this city and the Union club of St. John, New Brunswick.
